MANITOBA APPROVES GOVERNMENT CONTROL

CANADA CANNOT REFUSE EXPORT

Notifies United States That No Power Exists to Prohibit Clearance on Foreign Liquor Shipments

SAYS PROVISIONS OF LAW COMPLIED WITH

Minister of Customs Professes to Know Nothing of United States Note—Claims Regulations Properly Enforced

WASHINGTON, June 22.—The Canadian Government has informed the State Department through a note from the British Ambassador here, of its inability to adopt the suggestion put forward by the department last March that clearance papers be declined to vessels with cargoes of liquor destined to ports in the United States unless a permit authorizing its importation was presented.

The department in announcing today receipt of the note explained that it had addressed a note to the British Ambassador for transmission to the Canadian authorities, drawing their attention to the difficulties experienced in enforcing the Prohibition laws of the United States along the Canadian border.

Against Prohibition

It was pointed out that the Canadian authorities permitted small motor boats to take cargoes of liquor and to make regular customs clearances to ports in the United States, thus complying with the Canadian law which prohibits the sale of liquors to persons in Canada, but allows the exportation to a foreign country.

It was suggested that since the importation of liquor in the United States without a permit was illegal the customs officials might be disposed to decline clearance papers to vessels with cargoes of liquor destined to ports in the United States unless permits authorizing importation were presented.

No Preventative Power

The reply of the Canadian Government through the British Ambassador received Tuesday, said it had carefully investigated the matter and had ascertained the provisions of the law were being properly obeyed.

It was further stated that the export of liquor from Canada was not prohibited and there existed no provision in the customs laws or regulations warranting refusal of clearance papers to vessels carrying liquor destined for a foreign port simply because its entry without special permit is prohibited.

Know Nothing of Note

OTTAWA, June 22.—That the Department of Customs and Excise is within the law in declining to prohibit export of liquor on which duty has been paid to the United States, was the statement of Hon. Jacques Bureau, Minister of Customs, this evening.

The Minister said he knew nothing of the specific note informing the United States Government of the Canadian attitude in the matter contained in the Washington dispatch.

Hon Ernest Lapointe, Minister of Marine, also expressed ignorance of the note mentioned in the Washington dispatch.

It is understood that under the law the authorities here cannot decline to export liquor on which duty has been paid. It can decline to accept liquor shipped in bond to the United States and does so. Export of liquor to foreign countries is not prohibited under the law.

POLICE MAKE RAID ON PAPER'S PLANT

Seek Explanation of Publication of Photograph of Mystery Ship in Labor Organ's Office

LONDON, June 22.—The police raided the offices of The Daily Herald, the Labor organ, tonight, and held the members of the staff while they searched for the original and all copies of the picture of the submarine X1., which The Herald published on Wednesday.

Police officers questioned the staff as to how the picture of the submarine, which was launched at Chatham last Saturday, was obtained, and confiscated all copies of the paper containing the picture.

The admiralty had excluded reporters and photographers from the launching of the mystery ship, as the submarine had been called, and withheld all details with regard to the craft.

Canada Claims U.S. Fishing Craft Resisted Search

WASHINGTON, June 22.—The Canadian government, in answer to an inquiry from the State Department here, has made a report covering the firing upon the United States fishing schooner Siloam by a coast guard ship off the coast of Vancouver Island two months ago, which resulted in the killing of an American sailor.

The report sets forth that the United States vessel was caught with lines overboard, fishing within the territorial waters of British Columbia; that upon being hailed she attempted to make off and resisted search so that it was necessary to fire upon her.

A report requested from the United States consul has not yet been received.

MAJ.-GEN. LECKIE DIED LAST NIGHT

Well-Known Soldier and Mining Engineer of Vancouver Passes Away Following Operation

VANCOUVER, June 22.—Major-General R. G. Edwards Leckie, soldier and pioneer mining man of British Columbia, died in St. Paul's Hospital tonight. He had undergone a serious operation. He was in his fifty-fourth year.

Major-General Leckie underwent a serious operation last Thursday in hospital, and grave fears were entertained from the first as to his recovery. He had previous to that been operating a mine at Chu Chua, north of Kamloops.

He was a native of Halifax, where he was born in 1869. After taking a technical training he was engaged in various engineering and mining works in the East.

He came to British Columbia in 1896, and in 1903 went to Somaliland, East Africa, exploring and hunting big game.

He served in the South African war and during the late war. He commanded the 16th Canadian Scottish for a time, and later served on the staff.

After the war he returned to Vancouver again and engaged in his old calling of mining engineer. He became interested in Stewart properties a few years ago, and later went to the Chu Chua, where he was engaged at the time of his taking ill.

French Losses In Moroccan Campaign Reported Severe

PARIS, June 22.—The French troops have suffered "appreciable losses" in their present campaign to conquer the remaining Moroccan rebel tribes in the Atlas Mountains, War Minister Maginot told the Senate during discussion of the war budget today. He agreed to give the exact casualty figures to the army commission.

The minister's explanation was drawn by a question from Senator Victor Berard, who asked whether it was true that the casualties suffered by the French army of 25,000 men engaged in attacking the tribes in the mountain heights were "such as to make the operations a veritable war?"

THREE GERMANS SHOT IN RUHR

Occupational Troops Mete Out Swift Punishment to Those Guilty of Hostile Acts in the Occupied Area

SEVERE PENALTIES IMPOSED BY FRENCH

Consequent Upon Recent Attempts at Sabotage More Stringent Regulations Are Being Enforced

ESSEN, June 22.—Three Germans were killed today in different parts of the Ruhr. The first one was shot by French soldiers when he was caught doing damage to railroad tracks in the town of Lintrop. The second, one of a party of five or six Germans who attacked a German who was working for the French, was killed near Recklinhausen, when French soldiers fired on the attacking party. The third was one of the two Germans who killed a Belgian corporal and a private, and wounded another private near Recklinghausen yesterday when the Belgians tried to search them.

More Restrictions

In consequence of the attack on the Belgians the most severe penalty has been laid down for the towns of Marl and Buer. Six hostages have been taken, including the Burgomasters. The use of telephones has been prohibited for two weeks, there will be no street cars for three months, no one will be allowed on the streets from 8 p.m. until 6 a.m. for a month, and picture theatres will remain closed.

The attack on the Belgians occurred at Marl, while the punishment of Buer was because the family of one of the Germans lived there.

Heavy Penalties

BERLIN, June 22.—A French court martial at Werden has imposed sentences ranging from six months to five years' imprisonment and fines of 3,000,000 marks on former German security policeman accused of shooting French gendarmes in Essen.

A German press photographer was fined ten million marks for taking photographs of the French troops in Essen.

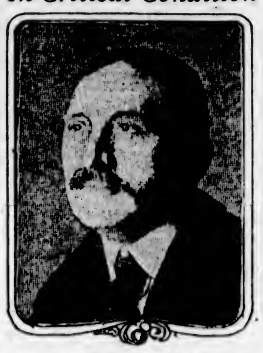

Approximately 180,000,000,000 marks in notes belonging to the German Reichsbank have been seized by the forces of occupation since they entered the Ruhr, according to The Lokal Anzeiger today.

Refused Orders

BRUSSELS, June 22.—A Belgian court-martial has sentenced five German burgomasters to terms of imprisonment ranging from one to two months and fined them from one to two million marks for refusing to execute orders given by the military authorities of occupation.

The Landrath of Heinsberg was sentenced to six months' imprisonment and fined 5,000,000 marks for inciting the burgomasters to resistance.

ELECTION AGENT MUST STAND TRIAL

LONDON, June 22.—Thomas Williams Wilson Bole, election agent for Captain Philipson in the Berwick contest of the general election of last November, was committed for trial at Berwick today on a charge of incurring expenses at the election exceeding the maximum allowed by law, with making a false declaration of expense and not declaring in writing the appointment and names and addresses of his subagents.

SEEK REMOVAL OF VICE CONDITIONS

National Council of Women Will Ask Amendments to Criminal Code—Boarding House Regulation

HALIFAX, N.S., June 22.—The National Council of Women, in annual convention here, continued its campaign against vice at this afternoon's meeting, led by the Toronto Council, today's resolutions being aimed against adultery, harmful literature and pictures, too lenient punishment for offenders and evil influences, shielded by unlicensed and unsupervised boarding and rooming houses.

A resolution calling for a petition to the Federal Government for an amendment to the Criminal Code, providing for a prison sentence with no option of a fine for those found in houses of prostitution, was passed.

Dr. Margaret Patterson, of Toronto, moved the adoption of a resolution that the local council study conditions in their respective localities of unlicensed lodging and boarding houses which, she said, "constitute a grave moral danger to our social life," with a view to working out a plan to remedy the evil.

Miss Borden said her council had asked her to urge the National Council to seek an amendment to the British North America Act, permitting the appointment of a woman to the Senate.

APPROVES SYSTEM CONSOLIDATIONS

President Harding Declares Method Only Solution—Government Operation Colossal Blunder

KANSAS CITY, June 22.—Consolidation of the railroads of the country into a small number of systems is a rational, justifiable step, full of promise towards solution of transportation problems, President Harding declared here tonight in the second prepared address of his western trip.

"If the system consolidations will not afford the solution," he said, "then our failure will enforce a costlier experiment, and the one great commitment which I hope the United States will forever escape."

The executive expressed the belief that this one great commitment—government operation—would be "a colossal blunder, which would destroy initiative, infect us with political corruption, create regional jealousies and impose incalculable cost on the public treasury."

FAVORS PLAN OF SUPERANNUATION

OTTAWA, June 22.—"The adoption of a superannuation scheme would remove one of the greatest detriments to efficiency and should be adopted at the earliest possible date."

This is the recommendation in the final report of the Parliamentary committee on the Civil Service, tabled in the House of Commons this afternoon.

CREW ACQUITTED

TOULON, France, June 22.—All the officers and men of the French transport, Vinh Long, on trial in connection with the burning of the transport in the Sea of Marmora last December, were acquitted today with the exception of Seaman Adolph Bert. Bert was sentenced to six months' imprisonment for having left a lighted cigar among cinema films, which ignited and started the fire.

PEOPLE OF PRAIRIE PROVINCE APPROVE MODERATION PLAN

Sweeping Majority of Over Twenty-Five Thousand in Winnipeg Backed Up by General Country Sentiment in Favor of Change—Prohibition Policy of Past Seven Years Reversed

RURAL VOTE PROVES SURPRISE TO DRYS

Legislature Will Meet in July to Give Effect to Decision of Electors—New Policy Will Be Administered by Commission of Three Members—Dry Element Disappointed in Woman Vote

WINNIPEG, June 22.—Manitoba has gone "wet" by a sweeping majority which went beyond 25,000 in Winnipeg city and which was going up slowly as the country was heard from, the bill of the Moderation League was endorsed and the policy of prohibition represented by the Manitoba Temperance Act—the law of the province for seven years—was overturned. At 11:15 o'clock tonight a majority of more than 30,000 had been rolled up for the Moderation League liquor bill in Manitoba. The complete vote in Winnipeg city gave a wet majority of 25,732, in a total vote of 66,094. The figures were: Wet, 45,913; dry, 20,181. There was a total registration of 76,000. Only six polls in Winnipeg gave dry majorities. The suburbs all went wet.

Cities Go Wet

Brandon, the second city in the province, had a wet majority of 903, the figures being 2,345 and 1,632.

A severe electrical storm shortly after the polls closed complicated the work of collecting returns, and nothing whatever has been received from nine provincial constituencies—Turtle Mountain, St. George, Ruperts Land, Mountain, Killarney, Gilbert Plains, Fisher, Deloraine and Fairford.

The wet majority was so overwhelming, however, that belated returns can have no material effect upon it.

It was shown that the country had reversed its traditional policy of "dryness" and was voting fairly evenly, while the city, which voted wet in the importation referendum of 1920 by about 7,000, rolled up its tremendous majorities in almost every poll and more than trebled that figure.

Admit Defeat

Prohibition workers admitted by 10 o'clock that their cause had met decisive defeat. They were surprised and disappointed at the showing from the rural polls and the smaller towns, and at the size of the majority in Winnipeg. Moderation League workers expressed gratification, and pointed out that they had claimed a change in sentiment throughout the province.

Under the bill of the Moderation League which Manitoba has today adopted, the government will appoint a commission of three members to administer the sale through government stores of all recognized brands of liquors for consumption as a beverage in the permanent or temporary residence of permit holders, who may be residents of the province or guests. Breweries will be permitted to deliver direct.

Legislature Will Act

The legislature will meet in July. It is pledged to enact into law the bill which was approved today. A second referendum is to be taken July 11 on a proposal of the Hotel Men's Association for sale of beer and wines in dining-rooms of licensed hotels with meals, and should it be adopted also the two systems will be amalgamated under the administration of the government liquor commission.

Portage la Prairie was the only major town which had reported a dry majority at 10 o'clock, and that was under 100. Brandon was wet by nearly 1,000. The Pas, with very incomplete returns, was following the lead of Winnipeg. Winnipeg's suburbs all appeared destined for the "wet" column.

Mr. Bonar Law's Health Condition Causes no Worry

LONDON, June 22.—Contrary to reports which have been circulated that former Premier Bonar Law's condition was growing increasingly serious, it was stated at his home this evening that the ex-Premier's health was giving no additional cause for worry.

"He is getting along very well, indeed," an inquirer at the residence was informed.

HOUSE BALKS AT RENOVATED BUTTER

Put Forward as a "Cheap Spread on Bread"—Minister Agrees to Allow Question to Stand Over

OTTAWA, June 22.—"Renovated butter versus Oleomargarine" was the subject of debate in the House in this afternoon's session in connection with the resolution of Hon. W. R. Motherwell, Minister of Agriculture, to amend the Dairy Act.

The resolution, which proposed to allow the importation, manufacture and sale of renovated butter in Canada, aroused much opposition, and after two hours' debate the Minister proposed that it be laid over, at the same time intimating that he was willing to consider amendments.

Hon. S. F. Tolmie, ex-Minister of Agriculture, led the opposition to the bill, while Mr. W. F. Carroll, Liberal, Cape Breton South, who moved the resolution favoring the sale of oleomargarine, joined in warmly.

"The Ministetr is creating a new industry," said Mr. Carroll. "We used to have people going about crying 'Old rags and bottles.' Now we will have them coming about our backyards crying 'Dirty butter; dirty butter.'"

Hon. Mr. Motherwell defended renovated butter as a solution of the problem of "a cheap spread on bread," and defined it as about halfway between creamery butter and oleomargarine.

REFUGEES SUFFER FROM COLD WAVE

Italy in Grasp of Chilly Weather, and Mount Etna Sufferers Are in Sad Plight

CATANIA, June 22.—The Mount Etna refugees are hard hit by the cold wave which is sweeping the country. Warm clothing, part of remaining war stocks, is being sent here by the Italian Red Cross for the fugitives from the stricken zone.

TRENT, Italy, June 22.—The cold wave which is sweeping Italy is extremely pronounced here. The surrounding Alps are covered with snow. At San Candido the snow is eighteen inches deep, while at Bolzano and Ortisci the thermometer has fallen to twenty-four degrees Fahrenheit.

CITES ELEMENTS OF CITIZENSHIP

Hon. Arthur E. Meighen Speaks Before Rotary International—Pluck and Friendship Assets

ST. LOUIS, June 22.—Rectitude and duty are the elements necessary for good citizenship, Right Hon. Arthur Meighen, former Premier of Canada, asserted today in an address before the fourteenth annual convention of Rotary International in session here.

"There are two elements of citizenship," he stated, "one is the claim or right, or sense of rectitude. The other is the sense of duty or obligation. The failure of citizenship is the preponderence of the first over the second. The harmonizing of the two is success of the citizenship."

Freindship and pluck are assets of citizenship, he added.

"Friendship is the first great asset of man," he said, "and in the words of Emerson, the only way to make friends is to be one. Pluck, the sort of pluck that ensures a day's work every day."

Guy Gundaker, of Philadelphia, was elected president, and Rufus Chapin, of Chicago, was re-elected treasurer. John Bain Taylor, of London, England, and John Gibson, of Toronto, were elected directors for Great Britain and Canada, respectively.

Rich Ore Shipments Follow Long Route

ANCHORAE, Alaska, June 22.—At Nena, 215 miles north of here, at the conjunction of the Alaska Railroad and the Tanana River, are seventeen carloads of silver ore, valued at $280,000, the first shipment of which is expected to prove a voluminous movement of the product of Yukon tarritory by a new route to the outside world.

The ore was brought by steamers from the Mayo district, far up the Stewart River in Yukon Territory, down the Yukon, down that river through Dawson to Tanana and from there up the Tanana River to Nena. At Nena the ore will be loaded on railroad cars and shipped to Anchorage for transfer to ocean steamers en route to the States.

Through passenger traffic on the Alaska Railroad, suspended June 9 because of washouts, was resumed yesterday.

Bishop MacDonald Submits Resignation

BISHOP MacDONALD

Head of Diocese of Victoria for Past Fifteen Years—Official Notification Is Received of His Relinquishing the See

Official notification was given yesterday to the Catholic clergy of the city, that the Right Rev. Alexander MacDonald, D.D., LL.D., has placed his resignation from the see of Victoria in the hands of the Pope, and that his Holiness has accepted it.

In accordance with canon law, the consultors of the diocese met together last evening and elected the Right Rev. Monsignor J. Leterme, domestic prelate of his Holiness to the office of administrator of the diocese during the vacancy of the see.

It is not only members of the church who receive with regret the announcement of Bishop MacDonald's resignation.

The former head of the Catholic Diocese of Victoria is a general favorite in the community, and has the love of all denominations.

Fifteen Years Here

Appointed Bishop of Victoria fifteen years ago he had become one of the picturesque and familiar figures known to old and young alike. An engaging personality, linking scholarliness with kindliness, and a broad and independent manner of thought gave him a large sympathy which brought him into touch with every aspect of the life of the community. He had intimate friends among the members of practically every denomination of the city, and at one time the rather unusual condition of an Anglican and a Roman Catholic Bishop sitting together was not an in-

Hear Disquieting Emigration Rumors

British Members Seek Information Relative to Conditions in the Dominions—Parliamentary Report Awaited

LONDON, June 22.—During a discussion of emigration in the House today, Mr. Ian Macpherson, National Liberal, referred to the many disquieting rumors in the press regarding the conditions which emigrants to Canada and Australia were forced to meet. He asked the Department of Overseas Trade to hasten the interim report of the delegation which had been sent from England to investigate conditions in the Dominions.

Lieut.-Colonel Albert Buckley, Parliamentary Secretary of the Overseas Trade Department, replied that he had received one report from the delegation on settlement in California, which it had visited en route to Australia, but it did not contain much information. He had, however, asked the delegation to expedite the report.

Mr. J. W. Muir, Labor, asked Col. Buckley if any parish councils in Scotland had asked for financial assistance in the payment of passages to the Dominions for boys and girls under fourteen years of age.

Colonel Buckley replied in the negative, and added that the Government was prepared to consider applications for the assistance of suitable boys and girls from Scotland to the Dominions under the Empire Settlement Act.

Mr. Muir said it was very disquieting and improper that boys and girls under fourteen years of age should be sent overseas without proper safeguards.

DAYLIGHT SAVING NOT NEEDED THERE

Yukoners Celebrate End of Longest Day of Year by Viewing the Midnight Sun

DAWSON, June 22.—The end of the longest day found hundreds of revellers throughout the Yukon out of doors at midnight to celebrate the midnight sun.

The big red disc of light swung above the horizon at midnight and started again for the zenith without setting and daylight saving became superfluous.

It is estimated that from 15,000 to 20,000 tourists made the pilgrimage this year to the Land of the Midnight Sun. They come from all the Coast cities, principally, but not a few traveled from further east to witness the phenomenon.

MAY BEAR UPON BANKING BILL

EFFECT OF UNION BANK'S ACTION DISCUSSED

May Result in Demand by Progressive Members for Still Further Amendments to Measure

OTTAWA, June 21.—The possible effect upon the fate of the Banking Bill of the Union Bank action in writing down its rest account by more than $4,000,000 is now being canvassed in parliamentary circles. The bill is now before the Senate, and it is stated to be probable that some amendments will be inserted in the measure in that chamber.

If that occurs the bill must come back to the Commons, and the subject of the position of the Union Bank may be brought up.

Proceedings upon concurrence in Senate amendments are customarily brief, and the near end of the session makes it doubtful that a lengthy debate will take place. It is said, however, that precedents are being looked up with a view to seeing what action might be taken in the way of motion or amendment to the bill.

The publication of the report of the Union Bank just after the Bank Bill had passed the Commons has been commented upon in Progressive circles "as a coincidence" or a "synchronism." Members of the group of Progressives who moved many amendments to the bill in the Banking and Commerce committee and in the House pointed to this development in the Union Bank as evidence of the need of thorough study of the Canadian banking system.

W. C. Good, Progressive, one of the leaders who advocated banking reform in the House committee, expressed the view that the bank's losses had been probably due, in part, at least, to the fall in values by deflation, and that until a method of stabilizing the dollar was obtained, only the very strongest institutions could stand the variations in price levels.

Hon. W. S. Fielding, Minister of Finance, is out of the city, and consequently no statement from him was available.

Disputes Right of Judges to Take Fee

OTTAWA, June 22.—Senator Gordon, in the Senate last night, quoted from the votes and proceedings of the Ontario Legislature, a statement that Hon. Justices Riddell and Latchford had each received $10,000 as commissioners after the law forbidding judges to receive such remuneration had passed Parliament.

He asked for a decision of the Justice Department on the legality of the judges receiving this payment.

PLAN CONTROL OF LAKE RATES

HOUSE MEMBERS CRITICAL OF GOVERNMENT PROPOSALS

Declare Use of Merchant Marine Vessels Would Have Broken Last Season's Shipping Combine

OTTAWA, June 22.—There was a long, and at times vigorous, discussion in the House last night over the resolution introduced by Hon. J. A. Robb, Minister of Trade and Commerce, to provide for the control of grain rates on the lake boats.

The resolution is the result of the report of the Royal Commission on that subject and the members of the commission came in for criticism.

The resolution provided for the control of grain freight rates by the Board of Grain Commissioners, and Hon. H. H. Stevens, Conservative, Vancouver centre, asked the minister why the grain commissioners were empowered to take care of this matter rather than the Dominion Board of Railway Commissioners.

Hon. J. A. Robb said it was felt that the grain commissioners at the head of the lakes, conversant with the grain trade, were better fitted to handle the matter intelligently than a board in Ottawa, far from the scene of operations.

Mr. Robb gave a brief resume of conditions that led up to the inquiry.

Robert Forke, Progressive leader, said that following the last session of Parliament the members from the Prairie provinces had returned home fairly well satisfied with what they had succeeded in doing to reduce freight rates. Later on they were much disappointed to observe that what they had accomplished in reducing railway freight rates was practically nullified by increased lake freight rates. Last year the shipping men had formed a combine and boosted rates as high as eight cents a bushel, and brokers had refused space to shippers unless the cargo was insured through them. The demand that the Government ships be used for carrying grain on the lakes was met with the reply that the vessels of the merchant marine were not suitable for this trade. It had been brought out at the investigation that ten or eleven of the vessels might have been used to break the combine.

Mr. Robb interjected that some of the vessels had been used for carrying grain.

Hon. A. K. Maclean was opposed to the resolution on the ground that he doubted the competency of Parliament to pass such legislation.

R. A. Hoey, Progressive, Springfield, asked if the Government had consulted the law officers of the Crown as to their power to prosecute the individuals of this combine. Western Canada, in its present mood, demanded such prosecution.

Mr. Robb, replying, said that this measure had been submitted to the law officers of the Crown but he realized that it might be challenged.

The resolution carried and the committee proceeded to the resolution which grants power to the Government to repeal the coasting laws.

This was carried with practically no discussion and bills based on the resolution were introduced and given first reading.

FATHER DELORME TAKES THE STAND

Facts Concerning Making of Will of Victim Occupy Chief Attention in Murder Case

MONTREAL, June 22.—Events surrounding the making of Raoul Delorme's will were subjected to a searching examination this morning when Father Delorme entered the dock for the second day of his trial on the charge of having killed his half-brother.

Throughout the hearing Father Delorme maintained a rapid-fire series of heated conferences with his counsel. Between times he scribbled voluminous notes on a pad of paper and at times even called advice aloud to his counsel.

The first witness heard was Bishop Rheaume, who as rector of Ottawa University, had witnessed Raoul Delorme's will. The Bishop was followed on the stand by Adrien Belanger, the notary in whose care the will was ultimately entrusted.

Adrien Belenger told the court that Father Delorme had telephoned him two days after the murder to inquire about the will. Delorme had asked the notary to open the will and read it as he wished to know who was the executor and whether any masses were to be said.

At the session of the trial yesterday the prosecution produced a sensation when it announced it would bring a witness named Woods to swear that he had seen a motor car, similar to that owned by the priest, driving from near the abbe's residence, and later turning in the general direction of the suburbs where the slain boy's body was found.

During the afternoon, the prosecution sought to show that Delorme had so maladministered the estate that he had incurred a personal deficit in his own account which he balanced by converting funds from the account of the slain boy. The defence, however, emphasized that all expenses were charged against the priest's account, even the trips which he made with his brother. Furthermore, the value of the estate had been greatly enhanced under the priest's administration.

The solitary witness of the day, William Marien, the auditor who examined the books of the Delorme estate under instructions of the Attorney-General, deposed that the priest's accounting of the estate, while not conventional, was of a meticulous character. He explained Delorme's administration of the estate from the time of his father's death.

When Delorme assumed his post of administrator the estate was valued roughly at $190,000. At the time of his brother's murder, it was valued at $240,000.

Mysterious testimony along angles not developed in previous hearings is scheduled for early disclosure by H. L. Calder, crown prosecutor. Hints of the evidence to be produced were given in Mr. Calder's preliminary address to the jury and supplemented by a trip made last night to the scene of the crime.

Alleges "Wet" Night At Canadian Club

NEW YORK, June 22.—Allegations that a "wet" night was spent by members of the Canadian Club of New York in the Hotel Belmont, on the night of Thanksgiving Day last, are contained in papers filed yesterday in Supreme Court by William Schofield, Newark, who is seeking an order to compel the board of governors of the club to reinstate him as a member.

FOREST FIRE CUTS OFF FIRE RANGES

Several Men Believed to Have Perished While Fighting Big Blaze in Northern Quebec

QUEBEC, June 22.—Several fire rangers are believed to have perished while fighting a bush fire fifteen miles in width, which has been burning for over twelve days. It swept down from the north yesterday afternoon, and drove away many of the farmers living to the north of that stretch of land between Port Daniel and New Carlisle.

The wind changed when the fire was within a few miles of some of the smaller villages. A large number of fire rangers are endeavoring to stop the progress of the flames, but it will be beyond their control. Today several are missing.

Railway Construction Authorized by Bill

OTTAWA, June 22.—A bill permitting the Calgary & Fernie Railway Company to commence construction of a line from Calgary to the headwaters of the Elk River within the next two years, was reported this morning by the House committee on railways.

Answering a question from J. T. Shaw, Progressive, Calgary, on the bona fides of the company, Hon. A. B. Hudson said the railway was a necessary part of an agreement with an English syndicate who were taking over coal mines owned by the company concerned. No government obligation was involved.

ETNA'S ERUPTION IS LESS VIOLENT

Lava Flow Does Not Endanger Any More Towns—Financial Loss Totals Enormous Amount

CATANIA, June 22.—For the first time since Mount Etna became violent, a ray of hope dawned this morning for the much-tried inhabitants of the volcanic region. The danger is not yet ended, for the crater of the mountain is still belching molten streams of lava and great rocks which threaten the complete destruction of nearby communities, but undoubtedly the violence of the eruption is decreasing.

A relatively small number of fresh craters—about twenty in number—opened during the night, indicating that the pressure within the mountain is less.

Volcanologists say it is impossible to prophesy how long Etna will continue active, but they expect a return to more normal conditions within a short time. Meanwhile, although the loss in property has been enormous, the present eruption of Sicily's great mountain of terror has claimed no human victims. Even physical injuries have been extremely rare.

Last estimates place the damage at more than 100,000,000 lire exclusive of the injury to crops caused by the showers of ashes and cinders.

The lava stream that has been threatening Linguaglossa has been turned aside by a spur to the south of the town and has reached the road joining Linguaglossa and Randazzo. The molten mass is proceeding slowly along the roadway, which follows a gentle slope and although the stream was 900 yards from Randazzo, the situation was not considered serious because the lava is cooling and the eruption decreasing in intensity.

ONTARIO ELECTION ACTIVITY GROWS

Eleventh-Hour Appeals by Candidates on Eve of Monday's Contest Stirs Interest in Outcome

TORONTO, June 22.—With election day on Monday, the heavy oratorical barrage in the campaign for the Ontario Legislature is lifted practically all along the line, and the candidates for most of the seats are today in their own ridings for the eleventh-hour assault.

While party leaders and organizers of government and opposition groups continue to express confidence that the returns will spell success to their own respective sections, it is significant that the independent observer admits that the probabilities in any direction are extremely indefinite.

Considerable interest is shown today in the voting in Manitoba on the referendum on government control and sale of liquor. While Ontario on Monday next does not vote on any change in the present prohibition law, the question of the enforcement of the Ontario Temperance Act has been made a paramount issue throughout the Province.

"Canned Heat" Party Claims Third Victim

WINNIPEG, June 22.—Three men are dead here as the result of a party where "canned heat" and wood alcohol were consumed. While an inquest into the deaths of two victims was in progress it was announced that Percy Tottan, aged 39, also had succumbed.

The coroner's jury recommended that preparations of "canned heat" and wood alcohol be prominently marked "poison," and that purchasers be cautioned by the merchants selling such goods.

Germany Seeks to Stabilize the Mark

BERLIN, June 22.—Germany's new programme for ridding herself as far as possible of the factors which are injurious to her currency is still in process of formulation.

Financial circles do not expect the results of the government's conferences with the experts will be made public before tomorrow.

The Manitoba Free Press learns today from what is described as competent authority. No official statement on the situation has yet been issued, however.

Fix Regulations for Train Dispatchers

CHICAGO, June 21.—The United States Railroad Labor Board tonight handed down a decision prescribing rules and working conditions for the members of the American Train Dispatchers' Association resulting from the hearing of the dispute between the association and fifty-five railroad companies.

The rules provide that regularly assigned train dispatchers shall be relieved on seven national holidays, or on seven days in lieu thereof, or if not afforded such relief, shall be allowed extra compensation at a pro rata rate.

In regard to the seniority, the rules provide that seniority will date from the time a train dispatcher entered the service.

Among requests of employees denied was one for a rule relating to pay for time lost on account of personal sickness.

Odd Fellows Honor Former Grand Sires

TORONTO, June 22.—Prominent Odd Fellows from all over the continent last night witnessed the unveiling of oil paintings of two former Grand Sires of the Order, the late Dr. C. T. W. J. Hamilton, Port Arthur, was elected a Grand Representative by acclamation. The concluding session is being held today.

REPORT ASKS CUT IN PAY OF NAVY

While Personnel of British Fleet Reduced, Outlays Nearly Doubled, Official Investigation Shows

LONDON, June 21.—Although the personnal of the British Navy has been reduced from 151,000 to 95,500 since 1913, the aggregate pay has increased from £8,800,000 to £14,000,000

This striking fact is shown in the report of the select committee on navy estimates issued yesterday, which recommends cutting pay all around and organizing and reducing the administrative departments. The report points out that the money paid to the navy personnel has increased 120 per cent in addition to liberal pensions and marriage allowances.

The committee also states that the warship New Zealand, presented to the Navy by the New Zealand government at a cost of £1,700,000, was sold for £21,000 because it was included in the Washington agreement list of scrapped vessels and was disposed of when the ship market was glutted.

WANTS LIQUOR MONEY GRANT MADE TO HOME

Ald. Woodward Will Seek Provincial Aid for Aged Men's Institution—Improvements Required

Having had the wording of the amended Government Liquor Act drawn to his attention, Ald. E. S. Woodward declared Thursday that he would make an effort to secure a grant from the Provincial Government for the Old Men's Home out of the liquor profits.

The supervision of the Home is one of the duties assigned to the Parks Committee, of which Ald. Woodward is the chairman. From what he has been told, the alderman believes that there is a chance for the institution to secure Provincial aid, and he claims that he is going to make an effort to get it. He will take the matter up with his committee, but he says that it is not a matter for the Council, as the money would go direct to the Home just as it now does for hospitals.

The chairman has no intention of using less of the city's money if he is fortuate enough to get a Government grant. There are much-needed improvements required at the Home, he points out, and as the Council has not set aside sufficient to enable them to be carried out, he would utilize any provincial funds for that purpose, augmenting the amount provided by the city.

The portion of the Liquor Act under which Alderman Woodward seeks a grant is as follows:

"Fifteen per centum of the net amount shall be placed to the credit of a special account in the Treasury, and shall be paid out upon vouchers signed by the Provincial Secretary in aid of all hospitals within the meaning of section 2 of the Hospital Act to an amount not exceeding twenty-five cents per patient per day of the total number of days' treatment in each hospital as determined for the purposes of that Act, and the balance of such fifteen per centum upon vouchers signed by the Provincial Secretary in aid of any hospital or institution for the care of persons afflicted with incurable bodily disease or disability, or in aid of any eleemosynary institution . . ."

Alderman Woodward classes the Old Men's Home as an eleemosynary institution. One of the most urgent of the various desired improvements, he says, is the bettering of the sleeping quarters of some of the old men. About twenty of the inmates of the Home, he claims, sleep in cubicles that are not large enough for human comfortable habitation.

HEART PALPITATED And Was Short of Breath

Through one cause or another a large majority of people are troubled, more or less, with some form of heart trouble.

Many people may be unaware of having anything wrong with their heart till some little excitement, overwork or worry starts it to palpitate and throb, skip beats, beat fast for a time and then so slow as to seem almost to stop, then it causes great anxiety and alarm.

To all such sufferers

"I suffered from palpitation of the heart and shortness of breath; my heart would skip beats, and in the night, at times, I would have to sit up to get my breath. I could not go up stairs without my heart fluttering, and my nerves were all unstrung, but since using your famous Pills, I have felt like a different person."

Outburst in Commons Against Conditions at Ellis Islands Stirs United States Officials

WASHINGTON, June 22.—Spurred by the attack in the British House of Commons yesterday on methods at Ellis Island in handling British-born immigrants, Commissioner-General Husband, of the immigration service, today sought legal opinion as to whether steamship companies could be required under existing law to bear the entire expense of detaining aliens at immigration stations.

Mr. Husband's move added another chapter to the controversy involving protests from some British authorities over the treatment their nationals received from American immigration officials.

Sir Auckland Geddes, the British Ambassador, recently made an inspection of conditions at Ellis Island and his report, which has never been made public, is said by officials here who have seen it in the British white book, to have been favorable rather than otherwise.

Admittedly conditions at Ellis Island leave much to be desired, Mr. Husband said, and it was understood that the Geddes report recognized the difficulties in the way of the American government in its efforts to correct them.

The outburst in Parliament yesterday, therefore, it was declared, caused surprise among American officials.

RECONSTRUCTION BEFORE U.S. ENTRY

President Harding's Pronouncement Indicates Lines on Which States Will Enter World Court

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 22.—The suggestion that reconstruction of the creative machinery of the permanent Court of International Justice be a condition to American adhesion to the tribunal was before the country and before the world today, as the result of the pronouncement made by President Harding here last night in the first formal address of his western trip.

The suggestion as made by the chief executive was put forward, he said, "to dispose conclusively of all other cited apprehensions of danger from the exercise of any influence whatsoever, either open or furtive, by the League of Nations or by any other organization."

The main features of the reconstruction as proposed by Mr. Harding to accomplish this purpose are: "First, that the world court be empowered to fill any vacancy arising from the death of a member, or retirement without interposition from any other body; second, that the existing authority of the permanent court of arbitration to nominate judges be continued and that the power to elect judges be transferred from the council and assembly of the League of Nations to the remaining members of the court."

Such changes combined with minor alterations also set forth, the President was indicated as hoping, would tend to wipe out factional differences over the world court issue.

C.P.R. PROPOSALS STRENGTHEN HOPE

If Peace River Line Touches Prince George Market May Be Created for P.G.E.

Members of the Provincial government who are anxious to dispose of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway and get it back into private ownership again are hoping that the Canadian Pacific Railway goes through with the reported proposal of running a line through the Peace River territory.

They see in this move the possibility that the Canadian Pacific may link up in British Columbia with Prince George, on the main line of the Grand Trunk Pacific (Canadian National), and the proposed terminus of the P. G. E.

Premier John Oliver stated yesterday that if the C. P. R. project were carried out there would be no need to extend the P. G. E. road beyond Prince George, as requirements of the next few years would not warrant the operation of more than one railway into the Peace River country.

"If the C. P. R. comes down from the Peace River territory to Prince George and the P. G. E. meets it there from the South, I should imagine that the P. G. E. would appeal to the Canadian Pacific as an attractive property," said the Premier. "There would, of course, be other feasible routes to the Coast, but there are many factors to commend the P. G. E., even though the route is possibly not the best that could have been selected."

The Premier said that no tentative figure had ever been arrived at to represent the price of the P. G. E. to interested parties.

"We would be very pleased to sell at cost," he said with a laugh.

PLEBISCITE MAY NOT BE THIS YEAR

Premier Thinks Legislative Action May Be Necessary Before Liquor Vote Can Be Taken

If the Canadian Senate insists on a Provincial plebiscite on the question of private importation of liquor in British Columbia, legislative action here will probably be required to authorize such a vote, Premier John Oliver stated yesterday.

"I have had no opportunity of making a close study of the matter and am not positive of the terms under which a plebiscite would be held, as required by the Senate, but it would appear to me that before any vote could be taken the Provincial legislature would have to give its assent," said the Premier.

If the Premier's opinion is substantiated, the plebiscite may not be held until after the session, in which case the liquor business will continue as it is today until the end of the year, if not until later.

Members of the Provincial government, however, have not yet abandoned the hope that the Senate will change its mind about the plebiscite and throw out the amendment when it comes up for final consideration.

DR. KING COMING TO WELCOME PRESIDENT

Federal Minister of Public Works Will Also Confer With Businessmen and Provincial Cabinet

Hon. J. H. King, Federal Minister of Public Works, has been chosen to take charge of the official arrangements of President Warren G. Harding's visit to British Columbia next month, it is announced by Premier John Oliver.

Dr. King is coming West to act as one of the representatives of the Dominion Cabinet at the opening of the Banff-Windermere Highway on June 30, and on July 5 he will go to Tacoma, Wash., to confer with members of the United States Presidential party with a view to making preliminary plans for the visit to be made to this Province following the return from Alaska on July 26.

It is expected that Dr. King will spend some time in Victoria during his Western trip, and local business organizations will take advantage of his presence to discuss with him Federal projects concerning this district. He will also have one or more conferences with Provincial ministers regarding matters of joint interest to the Federal and Provincial authorities.

GERMAN EXPORTS OF COAL STOPPED

ESSEN, June 22.—Germany's coal exports to Italy and Holland have completely stopped following the French seizure of the last railroad lines available to the Germans for such purpose, it is stated in German quarters.

Members of the Provincial government, however, have not yet abandoned the hope that the Senate will change its mind about the plebiscite and throw out the amendment when it comes up for final consideration.

MANITOBA'S VERDICT.

As a result of yesterday's vote Manitoba will put her Moderation legislation into force and do away with the Prohibition Act which has been operative in that Province for seven years past. The decision may be said to have been really reached in Winnipeg which gave such an overwhelming majority for Moderation that it was quite impossible to overcome it in the rest of the Province. The anticipation that the rural districts would be altogether in favor of Prohibition was not realized. Many of them gave a majority for Moderation. The result is sufficiently known to show that there is a decisive change in opinion on the subject in the Prairie Province. Outside Ontario, it was always believed that Manitoba was the chief Prohibition stronghold in the Dominion. What has happened there now must lead to a complete revision of this belief, and it also indicates what will happen in Alberta when a vote is taken in that Province in a few months time. Manitoba's verdict will also have its influence in other Prohibition Provinces.

The change over in public sentiment on this Prohibition issue illustrates the wisdom of the Federal Government in allowing each Province to decide for itself without enforcing a national law. The less the Federal Government interferes in this respect the better. Probably it is with that desire in view that the Senate refused to take action in putting an end to private importation under Provincial Moderation Acts, rather wishing to leave a decision on this phase of the liquor question in the hands of the people of the various Provinces, subject to whatever it is possible to do under the British North America Act. Manitoba's verdict is of very great interest all over the Dominion. It shows that the experience of Quebec and British Columbia is being watched with approval by a large section of the people of Canada, and it is more than probable that before long other Provinces will decide to give Moderation a trial rather than continue an experiment with Prohibition, which the annals of the police and other courts show does not prohibit.

A CANCER CAMPAIGN.

In most countries where a really strenuous campaign for coping with the disease has been undertaken there is a notable decline in the death rate from tuberculosis. The very contrary is shown in the matter of cancer whose victims appear to be increasing steadily each year. The increase in the death rate from this disease is arousing medical authorities everywhere to the need of intensive research work, and, as dispatches have told us recently, large sums of money have been offered as prizes for the discovery of the first definite cure for cancer. In the long run it will probably be found that the development of cancerous growths is generally caused by wrong dieting, but in the meantime it appears to be known, only in a vague way, what foodstuffs should be avoided, and the experience in this particular varies with different people. There is at present being launched a British Empire Cancer Campaign and its starting point is to ascertain exactly how much is known at present about the disease.

The main fact of the cancer situation is the spread of the disease. Statistics have been compiled to show the annual mortality per million living among the people of England and Wales for a number of years past and these also show how the disease of tuberculosis is being slowly conquered. The following table shows the death rate per million in the countries mentioned from cancer and tuberculosis and affords a striking instance of the spread of cancer:—

Year	Cancer	Tuberculosis
1838-42	173	3,782
1881	520	1,825
1891	691	1,599
1901	842	1,264
1911	992	1,062
1921	1,215	884

The London Times Medical Correspondent says cancer appears to be a revolt of certain elements of the body against the "body politic," but that this may be a mistaken idea and it may yet be found that the tumor is a reaction to disease rather than a disease itself. Cancer is widely distributed over the world and throughout the animal and vegetable kingdoms. It may be said, however, that the significance has never been found for the reason why cancer is unknown within the Arctic Circle. It is fairly obvious that it is not a question of climate, but on the contrary is more likely to be a matter of diet. The dwellers within the Arctic Circle live very simply and it is the simple livers everywhere who are the most immune from disease. The new cancer campaign will bring the subject of this dread disease very much into the limelight of public interest.

AN IMPERIAL PROBLEM

Discussion is beginning to grow up around the problems to be discussed at the coming Imperial Conference. Within recent years the greatest of Imperial problems has been held to be the various aspects of their relation to one another and to the rest of the world of the peoples of the British Commonwealth. This relationship has always settled itself in times of crisis and will continue to do so, but as each Imperial Conference comes around there are ways and means suggested whereby the imperial bonds can be strengthened. The subject is discussed in the June issue of The Round Table. This magazine states the case for considering the British Commonwealth as an effective League of Nations. The writer says: "If the nations of the British Commonwealth cannot resist the Balkanizing tendency (the creation of large and small almost unrelated States) and maintain their unity, what hope is there of the League of Nations giving unity to nations divided by race, language and color?" The need is emphasized of adapting to post-war conditions the consultative system employed within the Empire during the war.

The consultative system, The Round Table believes, could be perpetuated by a quasi-diplomatic method by which is meant that the Dominions and Great Britain should have as interpreters between them men of the same character as ambassadors. It is recognized now, more than ever before, that foreign policy should be a Commonwealth more so than a British policy so that the need arises of a position being reached whereby in such matters the needs and opinions of every part of the Empire can be understood. This, of course, is the crux of the situation. It is in the matter of foreign policy that it is necessary to find a new modus vivendi and if it can be found there is no doubt that it will prove an instrument in strengthening the ties of Empire. This, and Naval Defence, constitute the two big questions to come before the Imperial Conference.

EDUCATIONAL AIMS

An admirable summary of what should constitute the outstanding aims of education was given by the Bishop of Oxford at a recent address to the Parents' National Educational Union of England. In his opinion, what education should strive to do is to train children in the way of social righteousness, and strength and stability of character. This, he believed, could be attained by the development of an intelligent interest and refined taste, by the cultivation of moral obligation, by self-discipline and self-respect, and by the appreciation of the spiritual values of human life. He believes that it is right that a school education should aim at being a liberal preparation for the university. We were confronted, he said, with problems, political and religious, which taxed all our intelligence and all our largeness of heart and mind, and everything would depend on the way in which we understood one another. These problems will only be dealt with successfully if the fullest scope is given to individual character, enterprise, and the individual sense of responsibility, and at the same time all the members of the community, both rich and poor, should be given a common stock of rational and spiritual ideas to discuss those problems.

The Bishop of Oxford says that education is the deepest concern of the state. It is on the foundation of education that a community can be built up that will last. It is, he says, the preparation for the work of life, and the preparation—perhaps more important—for the leisure of life, adapted to the various aptitudes of individuals and the functions they may be called upon to fulfil. In his estimation it is through education, and through nothing else, that it is possible to give to the life of a community its true unity and proper cohesion. The conception is a noble one, for it sets forth the broad principles at which state education should aim. It is in line with those held by Sir Henry Newbolt and other of the greatest of modern educationists, whose ideas, if wholly adopted, would make for better social conditions than now prevail.

Some people have complained for weeks past about the variegated character of the weather during the present Summer but they are talking in wrong terms because Summer only commenced yesterday. The year is divided into four quarters known as seasons and these are considered as beginning when the sun enters the signs Aries, Cancer, Libra and Capricorn. The Spring season, therefore, commences about March 21, Summer about June 22, Autumn about September 23 and Winter about December 23. It is well to bear these dates in mind so as to be accurate in discussing the seasons of the year.

The New Zealand Government has decided to reintroduce penny postage. It has also decided to reduce the income tax, making the maximum 5s instead of 7s 4d in the pound. Economic conditions are forcing governments to the conclusion that taxation must be reduced.

NURSE LEAPS TO DEATH

Note and Comment

By R. B. D.

It is not likely that many honorable members of the Canadian Senate entertain views similar to those of Senator Fowler regarding Sir Henry Thornton, formerly an American citizen and now a British subject. The Senator says Canada would not lose much if Sir Henry were sent back to the Pennsylvania railway system, where he made his reputation as a transportation manager. That is a very narrow view to take, a view altogether unworthy of the position Senator Fowler occupies.

* * *

The probability is that Canada would lose a great deal if Sir Henry Thornton took umbrage at such criticism and resigned his post at the head of the Canadian National Railway system. Canadians and Americans cannot reach an agreement for reciprocity of trade. They have tried to agree on this matter more than once, and for one reason or another they have failed. But reciprocity in railway officials has prevailed ever since the beginning of railway transportation, and both countries have benefited from it. To take signal instances, Canada bestowed the late Mr. James J. Hill upon the United States, and the balance was restored when the late Sir William Van Horne and the present Sir Thomas Shaughnessy crossed the line and were the chief instruments in the establishment of what is probably the greatest transportation system in the world, a system of which Canadians are very proud, and which has assisted very materially in spreading abroad the fame of their country.

* * *

There may be features of the Canadian National management which are legitimate subjects of criticism, but the personality of the highest official of the system is not one of them. Sir Henry Thornton learned his business on a system which is famed the world over for its efficiency, and he came to us after a successful career in England. He is entitled to a fair field in Canada. Some of the alleged extravagances of which the Senators complain may have been handed down to Sir Henry from a previous administration. At any rate, practical railway men have been impressed by the manner in which he has started out upon his Canadian career, and there is at least a possibility that a problem which has caused a great deal of anxiety to the taxpayers of Canada—the liabilities of the national road—may be solved by Sir Henry Thornton.

* * *

There are hundreds of thousands of Americans in Canada, a large number of them in British Columbia. The great majority of them are of the class which may be termed good citizens, the very best and the most enterprising of citizens. Many of them have not followed the example of Sir Thomas Shaughnessy or Sir Henry Thornton and become British subjects. Of course, Canadians would welcome them into the fold, but they are not going to find fault with them if they choose to remain nominal citizens of the republic. That is a private matter between them and their feelings or their conscience. Liberality of view in such matters as patriotism and religion is one of the attributes upon which we take particular pride as Britons.

Canadians in their private capacity have lodged six million dollars in claims against Germany. That is a very small item indeed compared with other bills that have been presented to Germany. None of them has any immediate or remote prospect of being paid. Germany, whatever her position may be, is in no mood to pay her debts. She long ago made up her mind that she would not pay, and she is somewhat stubborn, some would say pig-headed, when she makes up her mind upon any matter. She has plenty of currency, but it is of no value, and nobody outside of Germany wants it, and people inside of Germany prefer any other currency when they can get it.

* * *

For this condition of affairs Germans have none but themselves to blame, although they still maintain that the war and its consequences were forced upon them. At any rate, debasement of their currency was not forced upon them. They effected that, and were, probably still are, rather proud of their achievement. It was the act of a fraudulent debtor. Now they are wondering what the consequences are going to be. Probably the consequences will be just what they have been. The mark has reached such a low point in value that further declines cannot be of much consequence. Even with a currency of any material value the Germans are still the most prosperous and the busiest of all the people of Europe. At least such is the report circulated about them by their neighbors.

* * *

The Germans complain about the effects of the French occupation. The French occupation is intended to have a certain effect, just as the German occupation of France on the conclusion of the war of 1870 was intended to have an effect. That occupation was prolonged until the French had paid to the uttermost sou. The French occupation of the Ruhr probably will continue until the Germans have paid every mark nominated in the bond. If the occupation were causing the Germans no inconvenience it obviously would be a futile proceeding. As it is the occupation appears to be achieving its purpose, and the sooner the Germans realize the futility of further procrastination and evasion the better for all concerned.

THE HOSE

"Then took the generous host
A basket filled with roses. Every guest
Cried, 'Give me roses!' and he thus addressed
His words to all: 'He who exalts them most
In song, he only shall roses wear.'
Then sang a guest: 'The rose's cheeks are fair;
It crowns the purple bowl, and no one knows
If the rose colors it, or it the rose.'
And sang another: 'Crimson is its hue,
And on its breast the morning's crystal dew
Is changed to rubies.' Then a third replied:
'It blushes in the sun's enamored sight,
As a young virgin on her wedding night,
When from her face the bridegroom lifts the veil.'

When all had sung their songs, I, Hassan, tried.
'The rose,' I sang, 'is either red or pale,
Like maidens whom the flame of passion burns,
And love or jealousy controls, by turns.
Its buds are lips preparing for a kiss;
Its open flowers are like the blush of bliss
On lovers' cheeks, the thorns its armor are,
And in its centre shines a golden star.
As on a favorite's cheek a sequin glows—
And thus the garden's favorite is the rose.'
The master from his open basket shook
The roses on my head."

CLEMENCE ISAURE was a lady of Toulouse, France, celebrated for her learning. She instituted the floral games in that city, when flowers were bestowed on successful competitors. She was born in 1464. When she was a young girl the one romance of her life began. A young troubadour fell in love with her and sang songs to her in which their names were linked. She replied with flowers, whose meaning her lover could easily interpret. He was killed in battle, and Clemence resolved to take the veil. Before doing so, however, she renewed the poetic festival, and as prizes distributed among the victors the five diffeaent flowers, wrought in gold and silver, with which she had replied to her lover. The floral games were continued for 500 years.

Dr. E. P. Bailey

Sir,—I believe you would be interested in knowing that there will be arriving in your city during the next few days a men of whom all Canada should be proud; a man whose name will bring pleasant recollections to many Canadians or Imperial Veterans of the world war who happened to be down financially or physically and stranded in Long Beach during those years preceding the end of 1921.

Dr. Edward P. Bailey is the man who has done so much for the Empire and the Allied soldiers in Southern California unselfishly and without thought of anything but helping the other fellow; he it was who, at great sacrifice and risk, organized the British-American League to combat pro-German propaganda. The League did a wonderful work in the U.S.A., and was eventually the cause of swinging the sentiment in favor of entering the Allied cause. Dr. Bailey is a member of the Winnipeg Post Army and Navy Veterans of Canada; also holds the only certificate issued from the Foreign Office, signed personally by Lord Curzon, expressing appreciation for honorary service to the Empire.

He is coming to Victoria as one of the delegates from Long Beach to the 100 Per Cent International Convention, and is so unassuming and retiring that I, as one of those who know his work, take this liberty of advising you, knowing what Canada owes him in the way of appreciation for care of her soldiers, and I believe this is his first visit over to Canada since; and he would never make himself known.

He was president of the Canadian Club of Los Angeles when the Great War began, had been elected for three successive years, but we retired the Club in 1915 to carry on the Allied work, and have been too busy ever since to become active again.

Trusting some of the boys will give the doctor the glad hand and surprise him.

Hanging Baskets

Sir,—Coming along Government Street today I saw an act which made me think if everybody would just do the same how nice the city would look.

A clerk from one of the stores came out and watered the hanging baskets on the lampost in front of the premises. Just a little thing; but it's the little things that count in life. An interest in somebody else's property.

Spiritism

Sir,—"None are so blind as they who will not see" is a very good slogan, and this seems especially true as regards these "authorities" who are opposing the claims of modern spiritualism.

Inversely to the remoteness of time has been man's ascent toward the temple of knowledge. Truth has made its ingress into the human mind in the ratio by which men has attained the capacity to receive and appreciate it. Hence, as we tread back the meandering paths of human history, every step in the receding process brings us to the lower plane of intelligence and a state of mind more thoroughly enerusted with ignorance and superstition. It is, therefore, no surprise to learn when we take a survey of the world two or three thousand years in the past, that every religious writer of that era committed errors on every subject which employed his pen, involving a scientific principle. Hence, the Bible, to which he was a contributor, is found to bear the marks of human (not Divine) imperfection. For the temple of knowledge was but partially reared, and its chambers but dimly lighted up. The intellectual brain was in a dark, feeble and dormant condition. Hence the moral and religious feelings were drifted about without a pilot on the turbulent waves of superstition, and finally stranded on the shoals of bigotry. The Christian Bible, like other Bibles, having been written in an age when science was but budding into life, and philosophy had attained but a feeble growth, should be expected to teach many things incompatible with the principles of modern science. And accordingly it is found to contain, like other Bibles, numerous statements so obviously at war with present-day established truths that almost any schoolboy can demonstrate their falsity.

There are many incidents related in the Bible, however, which fully bear out the testimony of spiritualism, and when critically examined, furnish abundant proof that Christ was what is now known as a spiritual medium. He unquestionably represented and often practically exhibited several important phases of modern mediumship.

Your correspondent believes in a personal devil, horns, hoofs, tail and all else. In the next breath he says that "the Word of God condemns spiritualism." If anything is of Divine origin it is spiritualism, for she is bringing consolation to the hearts of all those mourners who have been deluded by the priesthood to believe they were gone forever, and through their sins upon earth are doomed to the regions of "Hades."

Sadly childish and almost insane must be a mind that allows such a doctrine to rule its life and refuse to read, mark, learn and digest the truths of modern spiritualism, which teaches one to do good, not for the fear of punishment, but for the love of doing good. It also gives one a true insight to the fatherhood of God, the brotherhood of man and the fellowship of Jesus Christ.

Clam Versus Oyster Shells

Sir,—I understand that the Poultry Association has recently forwarded a circular letter to the poultry raisers of this Province advising the use of oyster shells in lieu of clam shells. The reason given is that the latter is deficient in lime, thereby being the cause of soft shell eggs. The following analysis of clam shells will refute this argument. The analysis has been very kindly supplied to me by Prof. Straight, of the Dominion Experimental Farm, Saanich. The quantity of carbonate of lime, as will be seen, is very high, in fact, nearly 93 per cent:

Moisture	1.03
Carbonate of lime	92.87
Insoluble mineral matter	1.20
Oxide of iron and alumina	.40
Carbonate of magnesia	1.85
Phosphate of lime	.44
Undetermined (organic matter, etc.)	2.21
	100.00

In conclusion I would point out that the oyster shell is an imported article, whereas the clam shell is most abundant on our shores (verb sap).

Island Development

Sir,—The suggestions made in a recent letter of mine, with typed quotation rom a recent issue of The Paper Mill and Wood Pulp News (New York City), are splendidly presented on first column of editorial page of today's issue.

It might be mentioned that the population of the Crown Colony of Newfoundland is just a little less than a quarter of a million people. I am informed, and I believe, reliably, that there is no public school system in the colony, and that the people are illiterate. While, doubtless, the Governor, appointed by the Crown, is a man of intelligence and ability, very probably the members of the Legislature (whatever its exact title may be) are men of less than average intelligence; and yet, doubtless, they are the persons who have had to pass the legislation necessary to enlist the support of the Armstrong-Whitworth interests, and the support of the Imperial Government.

On Vancouver Island alone there are supposed to be not less than 117,000 people (per last census), with a very high average of intelligence, many of them of the well-to-do class and a not inconsiderable number of the millionaire class.

The fact that the city and district of Victoria can sustain twenty branches of eight chartered banks must mean that the savings deposits, population considered, average very high.

There are (and I believe the Forest Branch of the Lands Department would verify the statement) several vast areas of timber suitable for a pulp and paper operation on a very large scale—saying nothing of lumber and shingles, poles, piling, posts, ties, etc., as subordinate and incidental thereto, on the West Coast of Vancouver Island.

Certain advantages might accrue to the establishment of the manufacturing in or near to this city; but even if the manufacturing was developed up the West Coast, this city, for head office location, as a gateway to the Canadian trade through Vancouver, and as a gateway to the United States trade through Seattle; also as the purchasing point for the many varieties and large quantities of supplies and materials required, day after day, week after week, month after month, and year after year, could not help but greatly benefit.

I doubt if it is generally known that Vancouver Island also has a large pulp and lumber operation at Fort Alice, Quatsino Sound, one of three large operations of a Canadian company, which has been ably assisted by one of the larger Canadian banks; also that there is another large pulp and lumber mill at Beaver Cove, very near to the extreme north end of the Island, entirely United States (Chicago and Michigan) owned, by people of large means, who are in disputs among themselves, and who, therefore, have not operated the mill during much of the three years since the completion of the plant.

If engineering advice, after careful investigation, should report that it was uneconomical to not locate a plant in or near Victoria, the possibilities to be considered are Port Son Juan, Nitinat Lake, Barkley Sound, Alberni Canal, Clayoquot Sound, Sidney Inlet, Nootka Sound, Esperanza Inlet, Kuyuquot Sound, Brooks Bay, or Quatsino Sound.

The Canadian Pacific Railway would undoubtedly increase the West Coast steamship service to whatever extent the business warranted; likewise the Canadian Government would extend and increase the telegraphic facilities as the business demanded; and in course of time the British Columbia Telephone Company might see fit to extend its lines to connect up a large plant of this nature with the southern end of the Island.

HUMANE QUESTIONS

Local S.P.C.A. Discussed Matters Connected With Cruelty to Animals

The committee of the S.P.C.A. discussed considerable business pertaining to the interests of the organization, at a meeting held on Tuesday.

Amongst matters under consideration were humane slaughtering, rodeo exhibitions, performing and caged animals, killing of sea lions, regular humane education in schools, checking of horses, etc.

With regard to humane education, the society has received a sample book for teachers (and pupils' edition of same), which is being largely introduced into English schools. A systematic effort is being made to get official recognition of humane education as a necessary complement to the training of a child.

The report of the Duchess of Hamilton and Miss Lind-af-Hageby, referred from the Anti-Vivisection Society, on the question of humane slaughtering, was of exceptional interest. A bill is now before the British House of Commons for the enforcement of humane methods of slaughter. In many municipalities in England and elsewhere the use of the humane killer is compulsory. The bill has passed the second reading.

The result of the American Humane Society's $10,000 and $5,000 prize competitions for suitable methods of humane slaughter will probably be announced next month.

The inspector's report was a long one and showed that a large amount of city and district work had been accomplished. Cases included: Cats, eleven, seven destroyed; cows, four; dogs, five; sheep, one; chickens, two; horses, twenty-two; cases in court, three; convictions, three.

The committee asks that railway and shipping agents do not forward shipments of animals unless these are so packed as to be able to travel in comparative comfort without fear of injury and with sufficient room, food and water, when distances are long.

Any cases of cruelty noted are asked to be communicated to the inspector, phone 7619.

Experiments are being made to derive a fuel for automobile engines from ordinary corn cobs.

NOVEL FEATURES AT MUSICIANS' BALL

Orchestra and Band Join Forces at Armories to Aid Fund for Support of Daily Summer Concerts

The ardent dancer who chafes at frequent and long intermissions between dances found the ideal conditions last night at the Armories when the members of the Musicians' Union of the city joined forces to give the music for a ball. The event was highly popular with everyone who went, and the novelty of having two groups of musicians, one in the gallery, the other in the centre of the floor, met with general favor.

The musicians in the gallery were a 50-piece band, recruited from the Fifth Regiment and the Sixteenth Canadian Scottish bands, who were conducted at different periods of the evening by Bandmaster Rumaby and Bandmaster Miller; while the twenty-three piece orchestra which occupied the rostrum in the middle of the floor was under the leadership of Messrs. Zais and J. W. Findler. These two ensembles of musicians shared the responsibilities, and as soon as one stopped playing a fox-trot or waltz, the other promptly struck up the strains of a one-step or other popular dance number. This elimination of intermissions proved much to the liking of the younger set, who seemed to form a majority of the dancers, and despite the additional time given for dancing, the patrons seemed just as reluctant as usual about leaving when 2 o'clock came. The musicians outdid themselves in furnishing the best and most up-to-date numbers, a little friendly rivalry between the band and the orchestra giving a fillip to the rhythm. Encores were most generous.

A very nice supper was served by Mr. Mutch, caterer for the Chamber of Commerce. The net proceeds of the undertaking are being used to augment the general fund which has been established for the support of the daily band concerts which are being given throughout the Summer, an enterprise which is among the most worthy in the effort to make Victoria gay and hospitable to its Summer visitors as well as its citizens.

APPEAL COURT ASKED TO VARY COST ORDER

Under Original Ruling Winner of Litigation Must Pay Huge Bill of Costs

Application was made yesterday in the Court of Appeal by Mr. S. T. Hankey, counsel for Mr. Frank Pullce, of Victoria, for a variation in an order made by the Court last October. At that time, when a decision was rendered giving Mr. Pullce approximately $15,000 under the will of the late Franklin R. Roundy, costs of the expensive litigation in respect of the will, were assessed against the estate. As under the terms of the judgment, Mr. Pullce was granted the residue of the estate of $60,000, and as the accepted rule was for the residue to carry court costs, it was discovered that Mr. Pullce would have to pay approximately $10,000 out of his $15,000. Mr. Hankey sought to have the order varied so that the costs of litigation would be carried in proportion by the beneficiaries under the entire estate, and in support of his position, cited cases where such variations had been granted. In one particular case quoted, an English court had carried its order forty years after it was originally made.

Mr. H. A. Maclean, K.C., appearing for Mrs. Roundy Glynn, of New Hampshire, U.S.A., the other beneficiary under the will, in his opposition to any variation of the original court order, pointed out that the disposal of the costs under that order had been all that caused his client to abandon an intention of taking the case to the supreme court of Canada. The time limit had now passed when his client could take such steps, and if the costs were to be redistributed, he thought it would be an injustice.

The same opinion was presented by Mr. James McGeer, representing the Standard Trust Company, plaintiff in the main action. Action had been taken under the original order and disbursements of money had been made. If the variation applied for were granted the trustees of the estate would be placed in a difficult position, he contended.

In his argument, Mr. Hankey stated that request had not been made last October for the order now asked, through an error on the part of Mr. Pullce's counsel. The court agreed in this connection, claiming that if an omission or error was made, responsibility rested with counsel for Mr. Pullce. Judgment was reserved.

PICNIC AT FARM

The first basket picnic of the Victoria Cottage Gardeners' Association will be held at the Dominion Government Experiment Farm today. Those attending may take any ordinary train (the 1:30 p.m. if possible), and a special car has been provided to return to the city about 7:30 p.m. Visitors should bring their lunch basket, and may bring the children. Tickets can be obtained from any member, or at the station. This will give the public an opportunity of being conducted through the spacious gardens by expert men, who will explain the names, etc., of the varieties of flowers, shrubs, etc.

BISHOP MacDONALD SUBMITS RESIGNATION

frequent occurrence when he and Bishop Roper held the positions of president and vice-president, respectively of the Ministerial Association. During the war the two Bishops, and on many occasions ministers of several other denominations, had occasion to speak from the same platform. Bishop MacDonald was one of the most outspoken and loyal of patriots, and was frequently in demand as a speaker at recruiting meetings, Red Cross affairs, and patriotic meetings of the kind.

Born in Nova Scotia

He was born in Mabou, Nova Scotia, of Scottish parents, and was educated at St. Francis Xavier University, Antigonish, from which he took his B.A. in 1879. His university gave him an honorary LL.D.

He was ordained at Rome in 1884, and for a time continued to teach at St. Xavier College, where he was successively professor of English, Latin philosophy, and Christian doctrine. At the same time he was acting as rector of St. Andrew's, Nova Scotia. His scholarliness is well-known in Victoria, as he has on many occasions taken up his pen with good effect to defend or oppose some cause, showing a logical and forceful style, and great ability in this type of forensic debate.

In 1900 Bishop MacDonald was appointed Vicar-General of Antigonish, holding this office until his appointment to the See of Victoria in 1908.

He went the same year to Rome and the Holy Land, before his return to Canada also visiting England, Scotland and Ireland. He was consecrated at Rome the following year, and attended the Plenary Council at Quebec on his way back.

He was a fluent writer, having strong descriptive powers, although his style was both simple and austere. One of the publications which has been most widely read is a little book recounting the incidents of his visit to Rome in 1908. He also published a number of religious books, and of one of these, "The Sacrifice of the Mass," a new addition is just announced. He was a member of the Authors' Club in Victoria, and although he has been out of the city a great deal since the society was organized he invariably attended the meetings when he was able.

Bishop MacDonald's fighting gifts were well demonstrated by the case which he fought in connection with the taxing of church lands, a case which was eventually successfully carried to the Privy Council.

He left for Rome on Easter Monday last, nothing more than that he was to have audience with the Pope being given out at that time.

Vancouver City Must Borrow From Bank

Revision to the ward system of civic representation is made necessary by the fact that the citizens last Saturday voted to abolish the system of proportional representation which has been in effect here for three years.

GOLD WATCH GIVEN TO FROLIC MANAGER

General Committee Shows Appreciation of Services of Mr. Fred Marsh—Surplus Allocated

A presentation of a gold watch to Mr. Fred Marsh, manager of the Maytime Frolic, in recognition of his services given gratis to aid the big carnival, was made by Mayor Hayward at a meeting of the general committee of the Frolic on Tuesday evening in the Veterans of France rooms. The capable way in which Mr. Marsh handled the Frolic affairs was the source of eulogistic comment.

A business meeting of the committee was followed by a smoker, with a programme of songs and recitations.

Partial accounts of the Frolic were received at the business session, over which Alderman John Harvey presided. The complete figures are not yet available.

It was decided to divide the surplus which is expected to be between $500 and $1,000, equally among the following organizations: Friendly Help, Children's Aid, St. Joseph's Hospital, Jubilee Hospital, Protestant Orphans' Home, Y. M. C. A., and Navy League.

RITHET'S TO HOLD BIG PICNICC TODAY

Employees of Wharf Street Firm to Descend on Albert Head Lagoon This Afternoon for Outing

Employees of Rithet Consolidated, Limited, will hold their first annual picnic this afternoon. Although the firm is one of the pioneer establishments of the city, picnics are one commodity never previously handled by the company. Now that the departure is being made, however, it is being done on a lavish scale, and every man and woman of the staff, together with the small tots who warm themselves about their home fires, is gathering for the event. Tallyhos and motor-cars will load up outside the office on Wharf Street at one o'clock this afternoon and when all are aboard, will start out for Albert Head lagoon where the rest of the day will be spent in tugs-of-war, races for all ages and sports of every description.

OBITUARIES

JOHNSON—The funeral of William Johnson, the twelve-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Johnson, 1362 Carlin Street, who died at the Royal Jubilee Hospital last Thursday, will take place this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock from the Sands Funeral Chapel. Interment will be made at Ross Bay Cemetery.

LORENZEN—The funeral of the late Christopher Lorenzen, who passed away at his home, North Saanich, on Thursday will take place on Monday, June 25, the cortege leaving the Sands Funeral Chapel at 1 o'clock and at 2 o'clock services will be held at the family residence, North Saanich, where the Rev. T. M. Griffiths will officiate. Interment will be made at Holy Trinity Cemetery, Patricia Bay.

Woman Pioneer of Yukon Is Fatally Burned In Home

DAWSON, June 22.—A well-known pioneer woman of the Yukon, Mrs. M. B. Simpson, aged 53, was fatally burned yesterday in her home on Hunker Creek.

According to the story she told her husband later in Dawson hospital, before she died, her home caught fire while she was there alone. She tried to obtain a trunk load of valuables and keepsakes from the bedroom, and her clothing caught fire.

She was found beside a pool of water near the house, to which she apparently crawled to extinguish her burning clothes. She died seven hours later.

4,000,000 bottles just like this are sold every year. Their contents have helped give new health and strength to an immense number of people who before were weak, sick, nervous and run-down. Among these millions of purchasers are an immense number of physicians, former United States Senators, Members of Congress, Judges of United States Courts, Generals of the United States Army, and men and women in every walk of life. If you are weak, irritable, easily upset, don't sleep well, are under great stress, strain or worry, or if lack of iron in your blood is sapping your bodily and mental vigor, weakening your will power and thereby keeping you from making the money or the success in life that you should make, you need a bottle for yourself. It contains which is iron like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples. It helps make strong, forceful, red-blooded men and beautiful, healthy, rosy-cheeked women. Without iron, your blood becomes pale, thin and watery and loses its power to change food into living tissue; therefore, nothing you eat does you the proper amount of good—you do not get the full strength out of it. To prove to yourself what Nuxated Iron can do get your doctor to take a specimen of your blood and make a "blood count" of your red blood corpuscles, then try it out for one month and have a new "blood-count" made and see how your red blood corpuscles have increased and how much stronger and better you feel; how the color has come back to your face and how much stronger and more steady your nerves now are. It will not injure your teeth nor disturb your stomach. It is entirely different from ordinary metallic iron which people usually take. Be sure to get genuine Nuxated Iron in tablet form only. It may be had from any reliable druggist.

FAREWELL MARKS SCHOOL'S CLOSING

PRESENTATION MADE TO PRINCIPAL H. P. HOPE

Pupils and Staff of Oak Bay High School Express Esteem—Mr. Gordon Downes New Principal

The annual closing exercises of the Oak Bay High School yesterday afternoon were marked by the farewell to Mr. H. P. Hope, the principal, who is leaving his present position, and the announcement of his successor, Mr. Gordon Downes, a member of the school staff.

Many expressions of esteem were conveyed to Mr. Hope during the afternoon. In eulogistic terms Mr. A. Sullivan, an inspector of the Department of Education, and Bishop Schofield spoke of what the principal had accomplished at the Oak Bay High School, the standard of which has given it a name in British Columbia educational circles.

The pupils, past and present, and the members of the teaching staff presented Mr. Hope with a gold watch, suitably engraved. Mr. Gordon Downes, who is to succeed to the principalship, explained that the students at present at the school, also the young people who were formerly there, and the teachers wished to express their esteem through this gift. Miss Helen Nicholson, a former pupil, made the presentation.

A beautiful basket of flowers was presented to Mrs. Hope by a pupil on behalf of the present and former students and the members of the staff.

Letter From Board

Trustee P. F. Curtis read the following letter from the Oak Bay School Board to Mr. Hope, afterwards presenting it to him:

"As members of the School Board and representatives of the people of the Oak Bay municipality, we feel we cannot allow you to leave our midst without expressing our deep appreciation of the excellent work you have done over the long period of eight years as principal of the Oak Bay High School.

"We recall to your memory its humble beginning, and the fears we sometimes entertained that so tiny an infant could thrive and grow. All such fears were groundless, however, and it is a pleasure to us to record the steady progress year by year which the school has attained under your charge, until today we are all proud of its record, and the worthy traditions it has carried from school term to school term. We realize this unbroken record of success could not have been attained without untiring perseverance, indomitable courage, organizing skill and gifts of scholarship in the person holding the responsible position of principal. It is fitting, therefore, that today, when you will preside for the last time as principal at the prize giving ceremonies, that we convey to you our gratitude for the faithful performance of your duties over a long period of years, and our unstinted congratulations upon the results which have been obtained.

"We offer you our best wishes for success now that you have undertaken the direction of Brentwood College, and hope its progress year by year may be as successful as the Oak Bay High School.

"EDWIN TOMLIN, Chairman.
ROBERT W. HIBBERSON.
H. F. HEWETT.
PERCY F. CURTIS."

To Be College Head

Mr. Hope is leaving Oak Bay High School to take the principalship of Brentwood College, the new private school for boys situated at Brentwood, on Saanich Arm. Complimentary reference to the aims and ideals of this institution was made by speakers. The principal, in thanking those present for their expressions of goodwill, referred to the enjoyment which his work at the High School had given him, and the manner in which the staff had cooperated in bringing to the institution such success as it had attained. He was happy to leave the school in the hands of Mr. Downes.

Three cheers were given for him, and the gathering sang "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow."

Mr. Gordon Downes, who is to be the new principal, has been a member of the Oak Bay High School staff for seven years. He is a Bachelor of Science of London University, with an honor degree, and for eleven years has been a Fellow of the Geological Society of London. Before joining the Oak Bay staff he was a teacher in the Victoria High School. During the war he served overseas.

"The Board has every confidence in Mr. Downes' ability to carry on the splendid work of Mr. Hope," said Mr. Edwin Tomlin, chairman of the Oak Bay School Board, last night. Mr. T. Whittemore, another member of the staff, has been appointed assistant to the principal. He has been at the Oak Bay High School for about two years, and prior to that time was on the Victoria High School staff. He served in the navy during the war.

REALTY MEN ADOPT MULTIPLE LISTING

MEETING APPOINTS COMMITTEE TO DRAFT BY-LAWS

Victoria Realtors Urge City Council to Carry Out Their Requests Regarding Reverted Lands

Members of the Real Estate Board of Victoria, at a special meeting last night, decided to adopt the multiple listing system, a plan of sales service which has been successfully tried out by over one hundred realty boards in Canada and the United States, and made plans for the inauguration of the new method in this city.

The resolution, moved by Mr. Alfred Carmichael and seconded by Mr. James Ellis, was carried almost unanimously, and reads as follows:

'Whereas certain active members of the Real Estate Board of Victoria have signified their wish to start the operation of the multiple listing exclusive listing system in connection with the listing and sale of certain classes of property,

"Now therefore be it resolved, That this Board hereby permits the organization of the Multiple Listing System among such members as desire to adopt it, provided that no obligations of a monetary nature be incurred on behalf of the Board as a whole without its consent."

A special committee, consisting of Messrs. James Ellis, Frederick C. Purser, Beaumont Boggs, R. H. Shanks and Alfred Carmichael, was appointed, on the motion of Mr. Frederick Landsberg, to draft the by-laws that will govern the operations of the Multiple Listing System here, to make a personal canvass of the members of the Real Estate Board of Victoria to ascertain how many of them will adopt this sales service plan, and to make its report at the quarterly meeting of the Board, which will be held on Tuesday, July 10.

Outlines Multiple System

The multiple listing system and the benefits that are to be derived by those realtors who use it were clearly outlined by Mr. Alfred Carmichael, president of the local organization. The meeting favored the suggestion that it should only be compulsory to list through this system residential property and vacant lots, and make it optional to list farm and business property. This decision will be tried for six months, after which the policy for extension will be guided by results.

The meeting instructed the secretary to send to the City Council a resolution recently passed by the Board, calling upon the reverted lands committee to withhold the reverted lands from sale at the present time. President Carmichael reported that members of the Board had waited upon this committee and presented its request, but, there had been no results, and he thought that they had made no impression upon the committee.

The president told of the Board's executive conferring with the finance committee of the Oak Bay Council yesterday morning upon the matter of the disposal of reverted lands. The members were gratified that the Council had asked the Board's directors to meet it.

PEOPLE OF PRAIRIE PROVINCE APPROVE MODERATION PLAN

The Woman Vote

WINNIPEG, June 22.—The dry forces were wondering what had happened to the woman vote, which they expected confidently would help them over rough places. Moderation League workers were inclined to think that the women had given, on the whole, a wet majority.

"A great victory has been won," declared F. W. Russell, president of the Moderation League, when he knew the general result. "Great benefits will come to the Province from the day's work. The bootlegger will be eliminated, the revenues will be augmented and social and moral progress aided. Men and women have risen to protest against the 'Dominion prohibition.'"

Complete returns for the city of St. Boniface show a wet majority of 3,380. The vote was: Wet, 4,919; dry, 1,539. The city of Brandon gave a wet majority of 807. The Pas had a wet majority of 500. Returns from rural polls, which began to arrive speedily after the storm gave no hope to the Prohibition forces.

Farmers Wet Too

The solidly dry farmer vote seemed to have vanished. Lakeside was dry by 450, but Morden-Rhineland was wet by 275, the wets were leading in Morris by 800, Manitou and Gimli were breaking even; Ethelbert was wet by 550, with only one-third of the polls reported and a total of 330 rural polls showed a wet vote of 28,687 and a dry of 23,147, bringing the wet majority in the Province at that time to 30,000.

"The result as indicated by reports so far received are extremely disappointing, but in no way affect our confidence in the validity and the value of the principle of prohibition," declared W. R. Wood, head of the Prohibition forces, when commenting on the returns.

"Where it has been adequately enforced it has been of inestimable value to the community and in Manitoba, in spite of handicaps, it has created conditions at least eighty per cent better than they were before. The trade has its temporary return. Temperance people, if I know them at all, will have learned their lesson by tomorrow night, that only sleepless and eternal vigilance can save us from the invasion of the liquor power."

An Opinion

The Manitoba Free Press will say tomorrow:

Blind Soldier-Editor

HARRIS TURNER, M.P.P.
Saskatoon member, who was blinded at Ypres, has been appointed editor of The Progressive, the new official organ of the Saskatchewan Grain Growers' Association, which will be published in Saskatoon.

"The significance of this verdict ought not to be misunderstood. For convenience sake, the public has insisted upon using the terms 'wet' and 'dry' but the question before the people was not a definite issue between liquor and temperance.

On any such clear cut issue there would be no question, we think, as to what the decision would be. Those who favor the abolition of restrictions on drinking no doubt voted affirmatively, but the votes which gave the Moderation League proposal its majority were cast by men and women who would resent the suggestion that they are friendly to liquor and willing to encourage its use.

"Many of them are electors who voted the other way in previous referendums. They came by personal experience, or by observation or as the result of argument presented to them to regard the existing law as having failed to bring about the promised reforms and to believe that government sale of liquor, under the provisions of the Moderation League's measure, offered better guarantees for the control of drinking and better prospects for furthering sobriety among the people."

By-Law Monopolizes Time—Owing to the need of completing the licence by-law, the City Council, sitting in committee of the whole yesterday afternoon, did not touch Works Committee business usually transacted at the Friday afternoon session. The whole time was devoted to the licensing question.

Sign Question Up—A delegation of sign painters and others affected appeared before the City Council yesterday afternoon to protest against the enforcement of the by-law making a certain class of signs necessary. Alderman Sangster, chairman stated that the council was in sympathy with the views of the deputation, and would consider the question in the near future.

Has Paste and Shears—Looking up from a desk littered with pieces of paper, patched manuscript, a badly mutilated copy of a by-law, a pair of scissors and a paste pot, Mayor Hayward explained yesterday afternoon that he was still hard at work putting into shape the recommendations of the special committee appointed to draft suggested duties for the comptroller and treasurer. His capacity as a collaborator is being severely tested in this task of piecing together the various amendments desired by the committee and the portions of the present by-law which it is desired to maintain.

SEEKS REVENUE FROM CLAIM AGAINST LAND

Appeal Taken Against Judgment by Mr. Justice Morrison to Secure Succession Taxes

The appeal from a court decision made by Mr. Justice Morrison relative to the succession duty act and the estate of Mr. E. H. Grunder, occupied the attention of the British Columbia Appeal Court yesterday afternoon, following the close of the Coryell versus Bertha Consolidated Gold Mining Company. The hearing was concluded late in the afternoon and judgment was reserved, the court adjoining until 11 o'clock next Monday morning.

Under the judgment of Mr. Justice Morrison, no succession duties were payable under the Grunder estate by the beneficiaries. It was set forth that the only British Columbia property involved in the estate was a claim for $16,000 against thirteen mining claims in Similkameen, formerly owned by Emil F. Voigt and Mary Agnes Voigt, of Princeton, B. C., but since sold at a tax sale. The amount of succession duty in dispute is $1,145.29, and probate duty amounting to $126.20.

Counsel for defendants argued that taxable assets were non-existant because the claim upon which the levy was based was supported on security of unproved value. If it was subsequently shown that value did exist, then no objection would be made to paying proportional succession duties.

JUDGMENT RESERVED IN WOODS FIRE CASE

Damages for Burned Posts Asked From Owners of Mining Property But Not Occupiers

Judgment was reserved by the Court of Appeal yesterday in the case of Coryell versus the Bertha Consolidated Gold Mining Company, wherein Mr. Frank Coryell, represented by Mr. E. C. Mayers, appealed against the dismissal of a claim for damages in the sum of $973, valuation of cedar posts destroyed in a forest fire on the Kettle Valley Railway right-of-way, near Lynch Creek, by Judge Brown. Mr. H. B. Robertson and Mr. F. B. Hetherington appeared for the defendant-respondent, the Bertha Consolidated Gold Mining Company. The original claim alleged that the forest fire responsible for the destruction of plaintiff's property was caused by negligent operation of the mining company's air compressor.

Mr. Mayer submitted that the trial court had accepted as a fact the origin of the fire and that the defendant company, as actual possessors of the mining claims, should have been found responsible, whereas the action had been dismissed because the compressor at the time of the fire was operated by a subsidiary company. Negligence was also charged against the company.

Mr. Robertson argued that the onus of proving the mining company responsible for the fire rested upon appellant, and that such proof had not been definitely established. He also asserted that the defendant company, while in possession, was not in occupation of the mining property. Relative to the charge of negligence, he contended that to prove such a charge it would be necessary to show breach of some provision or provisions of the statutes governing forests, and this, he asserted, appellant was unable to do.

SOLDIER FIRE VICTIM WINS COURT JUDGMENT

Case Arising Out of Disastrous Conflagration at Merville Last Year Won by Plaintiff

Insurance amounting to $923.50 was ordered paid by the Wawanesa Mutual Insurance Company to plaintiff, by Mr. Justice D. A. McDonald, in the Supreme Court yesterday, in a written judgment in the case of Marshall versus Wawanesa Insurance Company. Costs of the action were also awarded the plaintiff.

The case was one dealing with the destruction of property in the Merville settlement fire of last year. The plaintiff, a returned soldier, lost his barn and other goods in the conflagration and claimed compensation under his policy with the insurance company. Mr. J. B. Clearihue represented plaintiff, and Mr. H. B. Robertson the defendant company.

A second suit against another defendant will be brought on for hearing shortly, it is expected. It also originated through the disastrous forest fire of last year when many up-island soldier settlers lost their homes and possessions.

DUMB MAN USES OATH TO SHOW HIS DISGUST

Police Allege That Solicitor For Alms is First Class Fake—Alleged to Have Police Record

Is a "dumb" man an imposter when he swears?

This is a question which will be decided in the Saanich police court today. Yesterday, Neal W. Matheson, purporting to be both deaf and dumb, was arrested by Constable Owens, of the Provincial police department, for soliciting alms from door to door by means of a card declaring him to be both deaf and dumb. When he was brought to the station, it is said, and shown a card containing his police record, he allowed an oath of considerable hue and richness to escape his lips.

Matheson was turned over to Constable Hastings, of the Saanich police department, as he had been operating in the Saanich municipality. He is a man with many aliases, it is said, and a police record of some considerable length and variety, it is alleged.

Early Romantic School.

Mrs. J. O. Cameron, Moss Street, was hostess for the third of Mrs. Blanche Barbour's lecture-recital series on Thursday evening, the lecturer speaking of the "Early Romantic School." One of the outstanding performances of the evening was that by Miss Rita Ormiston, a pupil of Miss Marian Heming, who played the Allegro movement from Schumann's Carnaval. It was a most brilliant demonstration of pianistic abilities, the composition, which is difficult and varied, making great demands on the player, and Miss Ormiston gave a distinguished rendering. Others who took part on the programme were Mrs. Edmund Senkler, who played among other things Liszt's Twelfth Rhapsody, and the Liebestraum; Mr. Harry Davis, who sang a group of Schumann lieder; Mrs. S. Maclure, who played a Schumann composition; Mrs. J. O. Cameron, who added the Mendelssohn-Liszt "On Wings of Song." Mr. A. J. Gibson played the accompaniments artistically.

Returns From States

Rev. R. F. Kibler, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, returned Wednesday morning from Fairfield, Washington, where he has been attending the annual synodical convention of the Washington district of the Evangelical Lutheran Joint Synod of Ohio. About fifty delegates, clerical and lay, were in attendance at this Lutheran convention from the Province of British Columbia and from the states of Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Western Montana. The district president, Rev. J. B. Cronek, reported a healthy growth, both numerically and financially. He commended the ministers for the fine spirit of progressive conservatism which prevailed among them and insisted that it was the attitude which the church must maintain in these turbulent times.

Hosts At Strawberry Social

A delightful strawberry social was convened yesterday afternoon and evening at the home of Mrs. Cobley, 3435 Cook Street, by members of Miriam Temple, Daughters of the Nile. There was a large attendance of guests present, and the luscious fruit grown in the gardens of the hostess was enjoyed by all. During the afternoon Mr. Bert Marra and Mr. Nelson Griffin rendered guitar and violin solos, while from 6:45 to 8:30 the Shriners' Band dispensed music for the pleasure of the guests. Mrs. Humphrey, Queen of Miriam Temple, assisted Mrs. Cobley in receiving the numerous visitors. Announcement was made that Mr. T. Choosing the Clubs

By WALTER HAGEN

(Copyright, 1923, in U.S. and Great Britain by North American Newspaper Alliance. All rights reserved.)

I said in a recent article that every golfer should determine whether he had a flat or an upright swing before he purchases a large number of golf clubs.

Every beginner likes to believe that his swing is upright because it sounds better. Nine out of ten have to be convinced that a club with a flat lie will suit them better.

Every golf shop carries a large assortment of clubs these days and one has no trouble at all in making a selection. Clubs with both upright and flat lies run from the driver and the brassis all the way down the line to the putter.

In selecting clubs it is not necessary to purchase a complete output all at once. The average professional or low handicap player carries about a dozen clubs in his bag. I have this many and sometimes more. When I arrived in England, recently, I counted fourteen clubs, but two of these, a well-lofted brassie, for getting the ball up quickly, and a new aluminum putter, I have always managed to get along without.

Four Wooden Clubs.

I now have four wooden clubs in my bag. Jock Hutchison has the same number, as he carries a long and a short spoon. Jim Barnes has thirteen clubs, but the majority carry only eleven or twelve.

The fewer the amateur has in his bag at the beginning the better, because there is a great temptation to want to use them all. It is better to learn a few clubs at a time and learn them well.

I mean by this that if one is going to try to use twelve clubs for a round when he scarcely knows how to use any one of them, his chances for success will be very slim. Better to take one club at a time.

I would suggest that one purchase first a brassie that can be used for a driver for a while. The trouble with most beginners is that they want to use a driver from the tee each time, whether they hit the ball or not.

I do not believe that it is a good idea to use an iron. Players who start with a driver and then switch to an iron are always tempted to play that club for safety sake. This is a bad habit to get into.

Kill the Ball

Take a brassie at first and then stick to it, but don't try to kill the ball each time you hit it. After one knows how to hit it with the brassie it is time to think about a driver. Another reason one should use a brassie is that the club will not feel strange when hitting them on the fairway.

The midiron is a useful club to have around, and I suggest that this be the next selection. A mashie is needed, but it is only a little brother to the midiron, though a very important member of the family. I would suggest that the midiron be about the same as the mashie, only a little longer shaft and the face of the club not laid back quite so much.

A niblick is useful at all times and might as well be purchased in the beginning. The trouble club is useful for getting out of sand traps and in dislodging the ball from the rough grass.

Few players who stick at the same more than a half dozen years are satisfied to use the same clubs that they began with. This is why I suggested buying only a few in the beginning.

Players Change Clubs.

It is difficult indeed to select clubs that will last a golfer throughout his career. I hardly know of a golfer who still plays with any of his original clubs.

A putter must be secured at first, but of all clubs selected this is the club least likely to satisfy. There are few indeed who can pick out a putter that they will be pleased with, and the strange part of it is that it isn't always the putter's fault. Every golfer must go through the experience of trying out various kinds of putters.

These five clubs will suffice for the beginner.

Criticizes Outlays For French Fleet

PARIS, June 22.—France spends annually 1,200,000,000 francs to maintain a fleet, the value of which does not reach 500,000,000 francs, says Senator Lemery, in Le Matin.

The Senator arrived at these figures by calculations showing that the entire fleet is worth 925,000,000 francs, of which 325,000,000 are in obsolete battleships, 235,000,000 in various vessels without fighting value, leaving 365,000,000 as the valuation of light ships and submarines.

The total appropriations for the navy for the most part are spent on arsenals, which are building nothing, says the writer.

TO HIGHEST COURT

VANCOUVER, June 22.—W. F. Brougham announced today that Mrs. E. Smith's appeal from conviction under the Liquor Act would be carried to the Privy Council, on the contention that beer is not defined in the act as liquor. In the Court of Appeal opinion was divided, three and two.

British emigration is favoring Australia, and Canada is in danger of being replaced as the premier British Dominion. This is not as it should be. We are not alive to our possibilities nor to the problem of solving our railway difficulties if we let good immigration go elsewhere.—St. Catharines Standard.

Crooked Informers

Speaking of liquor enforcement methods, Premier Drury is reported as saying that "mercy and toleration are no use in prosecuting offenders." It will be a sorry time for justice in the courts if mercy and toleration are to be cast aside and considerations of humanity are ignored. There are some being convicted now who are not thought guilty, but under the system the evidence of crooked informers is preferable to the word of honest men The law assumes guilt unless the accused proves innocence. That's a serious departure from British justice.—Guelph Mercury.

Wanted, a New Mistress

The basement house, the old-fashioned town house in general, is an abomination, and should be swept away. But even before that consummation we must insist that the new mistress is more necessary to discover than the new servant.—Westminster Gazaette.

A Word for Bulgaria

The whole question of Bulgaria's outlet to the Aegean Sea has been shelved with complete indifference alike to the welfare of that little country and to promises made. Bulgaria since the war has acted with diplomatic correctness and perfect loyalty to the Treaty. She deserves better treatment than she has received.—London Daily Chronicle.

A Hint to Canada

Canada has tried to take her share in the burden of Empire by providing a local navy, with not very satisfactory results. Should Canada alter her form of Imperial contribution and provide an airship unit for work with the fleet, her money would be spent to much better effect. She has the only helium supply at present located in the Empire. Situated between the Atlantic and Pacific, she is in a position to switch her air power from one ocean to the other in forty-eight hours for the assistance of the fleets operating in those waters.—Natal Advertiser.

98 Out of Every 100 Women Benefited
An Absolutely Reliable Statement Important to Every Woman
Remarkable Results Shown by a Nation Wide Canvass of Women Purchasers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
50,000 Women Answer

For some time a circular has been enclosed with each bottle of our medicine bearing this question: "Have you received benefit from taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?"
Replies, to date, have been received from over 50,000 women answering that question.
98 per cent of which say YES. That means that 98 out of every 100 women who take the medicine for the ailments for which it is recommended are benefited by it.
This is a most remarkable record of efficiency. We doubt if any other medicine in the world equals it.
Think of it—only two women out of 100 received no benefit—98 successes out of a possible 100.
Did you ever hear of anything like it? We must admit that we, ourselves, are astonished.
Of course we know that our medicine does benefit the large majority of women who take it. But that only two out of 100 received no benefit is most astonishing.
It only goes to prove, however, that a medicine specialized for certain definite ailments—not a cure all—one that is made by the most scientific process; not from drugs, but from a combination of nature's roots and herbs, can and does do more good than hastily prepared prescriptions.
You see, we have been making, improving and refining this medicine for over 50 years until it is so perfect and so well adapted to women's needs that it actually has the virtue to benefit 98 out of every 100 women who take it.
It's reliability and recognized efficiency has gained for it a sale in almost every country in the world—leading all others.
Such evidence should induce every woman suffering from any ailment peculiar to her sex to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and see if she can't be one of the 98

ST. ANN'S ACADEMY HOLDS CLOSING

LISTS OF PRIZE WINNERS AND CERTIFICATES GRANTED

Pretty Ceremonies Attended Conclusion of Year's Work at Well-Known Institution

The closing exercises of the classes at St. Ann's Academy were this year of a private nature, though the programme presented was as choice and as well rendered as those of previous years.

The white-garbed pupils marched into the spacious auditorium under charming rose arches, the effect being very striking. On the stage, besides the Reverend Mother Provincial and the staff of the Academy, were the Right Reverend Monsignor Leterme, Rev. Father Wood and Rev. Father Sobry, Chaplain of St. Joseph's Hospital, and several friends.

Monsignor Leterme presented the various diplomas and medals, and, in a short address, offered congratulations and good wishes to the students, and emphasized the necessity, as a guarantee of true happiness, of never forgetting God and His Divine claims, their parents and what is due to them; nor should they "forget themselves" at any time (as children sometimes do), nor their Alma Mater.

The programme, every item of which was thoroughly enjoyed, was as follows:

Entry of pupils; Marche Joyeuse (Herchmer), Misses Regina Lutz and Florence McCarty; chorus, "Palms and Roses"; salutatory, "Beauty Everywhere," Helen Boyd; junior chorus, (a) "Summer Days," (b) "What Robin Told Me"; piano solo, "Vox Populi" (Sgambati), Margaret Adam; chorus, "Terre de Nos Aieux"; piano duet, Beethoven's Symphony, R. Lutz and Doris Woollison; chorus, "Only a Tiny Garden"; class song, "St. Ann's, We Sing to Thee"; "God Save The King." Pupils retire. March Triomphale (Florez).

VETERANS PREPARED TO RENEW STRUGGLE

Dominion Veterans' Alliance Continues Fight for Justice for Disabled and Dependents

That officials of the Dominion Veterans' Alliance do not intend to relax their efforts to bring about a better administration of the Pension Act, but will renew the struggle to secure simple justice for the ex-service men, is the message that has been received by Mr. H. Deepard Twigg, commandant of the Victoria Post of the Canadian Legion, in a wire from Mr. C. G. Macneill, secretary of the Dominion Veterans' Alliance.

Mr. Twigg sent a request several days ago to Mr. Macneill, asking for information regarding the effect that the present attitude of the Senate would have, and informing him that the Victoria veterans were a unit in insisting upon fair play and justice in the Pension Board's treatment of returned soldiers, and calling upon the Pension Commissioners to immediately resign from office.

In reply, Mr. Macneill sent the following telegram to Mr. Twigg: "The Senate, on the suggestion of Senator Calder and on the motion of Senator Lougheed, refused second readings of all legislation secured by the report of the Royal Commission and assent of the House of Commons. Bill referred to special committee of Senate to review all evidence. Situation believed to result from opposition inspired from departmental sources with exaggerated estimated expenditure involved. Dominion Veterans' Alliance preparing for further presentation of all avidence and renewal desperate struggle for simple justice. Invite all possible publicity to impress Government and members of House of Commons that Parliament should not adjourn until justice has been assured disabled men and dependents."

Mr. Twigg yesterday sent messages to Senators Bostock, Green, Taylor and Barnard which read as follows:

"Public feeling here very strongly in favor of pension and insurance measures as passed by Commons. Present attitude of Senate not understood. In face of Commission raport and almost daily refusals to grant pensions in deserving cases, public consider that Pension Board is entitled to little sympathy. Respectfully urge you to support disabled men in present struggle."

The local unit of the Army and Navy Veterans' Association has received the following telegram from the Dominion secretary of the organization in connection with the Pensions Board matter: "In view of action taken by the Senate this week in holding up bills on pension, insurance and re-establishment, I would strongly advise you to wire every Senator from your Province to approve legislation as submitted by House of Commons."

Upon receipt of this message from the East, the following night-letter was dispatched to Senators H. Bostock, G. H. Barnard and R. F. Green, and signed by Mr. T. Jones, Provincial director of the Army and Navy Veterans' Association in British Columbia: "In view of the action in holding up bills on pensions, insurance and re-establishment, we strongly urge you to approve legislation submitted in Commons."

Wrecked Plane Put End to Pole Flight

NOME, Alaska, June 22.—Advices today from Wainwright confirmed the report that Roald Amundsen, Norwegian explorer, aviator, had damaged his airplane in a trial there, making impossible his proposed flight this Summer over the North Pole.

Amundsen will proceed to Seattle on the schooner C. S. Holmes, probably not stopping at Nome en route, as the vessel is expected to make the voyage from Wainwright direct.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., June 21.—Harvard University today awarded its record number of 1,412 degrees and conferred honorary degrees upon a list of distinguished men, among whom was Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King, of Canada. At the alumni exercises this afternoon, the class of 1873 made the customary presentation by the 25-year class of $100,000 to the University, and President A. Lawrence Lowell announced the receipt during the year of gifts and bequests amounting to nearly $4,000,000.

New beauty, new economy
for your home, for your garments

YOU cannot always find in ready-dyed fabrics what you need for color harmony. If you do find the right colors, their cost may be too high. With SUNSET you can get any color or shade by dyeing white goods, or re-dyeing inexpensive inharmonious fabrics.

This is only one of a dozen ways to achieve color-beauty with economy through the use of SUNSET Dyes.

SUNSET dyeing has become a fashion. Home-dyeing is no longer a make-shift, full of uncertainties, full of hours-long drudgery that leaves stained hands and spoiled utensils.

SUNSET has changed all that. Dyeing with SUNSET is a simple, clean, sure, 30-minute operation.

SUNSET is different from all other dyes — you need never ask for a "cotton-dye" or a "wool-dye," because SUNSET dyes all fabrics equally well.

SUNSET is fast, because boiled in to stay. There is no powder to fly, because SUNSET is a cake. SUNSET does not stain hands or utensils. SUNSET is a real dye—a professional dye made convenient for home use. It offers color-variety and provides economies which no other method makes possible.

The Man Without a Heart

By RUBY AYERS

The story thus far:

After seventeen years abroad, Rufus Asher is home again, and is learning something of post-war England at his sister Linda Hyde's house party. The pleasure-loving, artificial crowd disgust him. His sister is unhappily married. Of all the party only one arouses any feeling of respect in him—and that is Barbara Weir, with whom he is in love. Then one evening, by accident, he discovers that Barbara is in love, and planning to elope with Linda's husband, Edmund Hyde. He sees red; he has loved and respected this girl, and she is not worthy of it. He vows to make her pay for ruining Linda's happiness.

VII—A Sound in the Night

Barbara Weir and Linda's husband? It still seemed almost as if those moments outside on the terrace must have been a dream—as if they could never really have happened; and yet—the passionate embrace had been real enough, and the breathless, whispering words.

And tomorrow, in a few short hours, they were going away together, and Linda's life would be ruined!

Langely had been watching him curiously from beneath his level brows, and now he said again, with a shade of interest in his lazy voice:

"I'll double my offer; I'll make it two shillings if you'll tell me what thoughts are capable of making you look so like a murderer."

Rufus stood up with a short laugh.

"It must be my natural expression. I'm tired. I'll say good-night."

"Night, old boy; pleasant dreams!"

Langely lay back on the cushions and closed his eyes with a little sigh of contentment.

The house seemed very quiet all at once; the landing lights had been lowered, and outside the closed doors shoes and slippers of all sizes and descriptions stood neatly side by side or leaned sleepily together.

There was one pair—small black satin shoes with crimson heels—at which Asher glanced almost furtively before he hurriedly looked away again. They were Barbara's shoes, he knew; he had watched them twinkling round the crowded room, and they had walked beside him through the moonlight across the sleeping garden. He had felt inexpressibly drawn to her until that moment on the terrace; and now he hated her.

His face was ugly in its hardness as he went on to his own room and shut the door.

The window was open, and an edge of lace curtain stirred in the night breeze as, without turning on the light, he crossed the room and sat down looking into the garden.

A little further along on the left, the light from the smoking room, where he had left Langely, shone out into the garden, making a square yellow patch on the grass.

Rufus filled his pipe again and lit it, and leaning his arms on the window-ledge, lost himself in thought—merciless thought of what he meant to do in the future.

Primitive methods were the only ones he understood; there was nothing subtle or clever in his mind; when he wanted a thing done he took the sledge-hammer, most obvious way of doing it, and tonight the thing he had set his heart upon was the saving of his sister's happiness.

She had always been the greatest factor in his life, and she was still his first and deepest consideration. Her happiness must be saved at all costs; it mattered nothing who else was sacrificed to that end.

And by the time his pipe was finished, Rufus Asher had found his way.

He rose then, and was about to knock the dead ashes from the bowl on to the window-ledge, when a faint, indefinite sound on the landing outside caught his ear.

A loose board—the creak of a door—nothing of greater significance; to an untrained ear it would probably have passed unnoticed, but Asher had lived so long in the open that he had learned to read meaning even in the varied rustle of the trees and the trembling of the grass underfoot.

So he put his pipe back into his pocket and softly crossed the room to the door. And then it came again—more definite now—a light step, a woman's step—and the blood beat in a wave to his face as his fingers groped through the darkness and found the door handle.

A clock somewhere in the house struck four, and under cover of its chime Rufus opened the door and looked out on to the landing.

A wavering flicker of candle-light was sending weird shadows on the panelled walls and low ceiling, and it was being carried by a woman who at that moment was descending the staircase. The loose folds of her robe were caught together around her as if to prevent the soft soughing noise it would otherwise have made over the carpet.

Australians Unable To Play Exhibition

Local Tennis Officials Get Wireless Message From Davis Cup Team Saying Impossible to Break Journey—Will Try Last Minute Persuasion on Arrival of Players This Morning

IT was regretfully announced last night by officials of the Victoria Lawn Tennis Club that, after sending three wireless messages to the Australian Davis Cup team on the Makura, expected to reach here this morning, a final answer had been received from the Australians saying that it would be quite impossible to break their journey here and that explanations would be made on arrival.

Will Try Persuasion

Mr. Tom Leeming, of the local club, stated last night that the players would be met at the boat and a last effort made to try and persuade them to stop over and play at least a few games on the local courts. Mr. Leeming stated that he was of the opinion that the visitors did not quite understand conditions here, and hoped to be able to show them that they would be able to play here and still make the connections they desired for their journey eastward.

No Play in Vancouver

Inquiry of Vancouver tennis officials last night elicited the reply that matches with the Australians were not considered likely to take place there. The Vancouver city championships start today, and Milne and Richards, who would be the logical opponents for the Australians, are leaving tonight for Winnipeg. At any rate, no arrangements had been made in Vancouver for matches with the Australian Davis Cup players.

FRANCE IS AHEAD

DUBLIN, June 22.—J. Brugnon and R. Lacoste, of France, defeated the Hon. Cecil Campbell and S. F. Scroope, of Ireland, in the Davis Cup lawn tennis doubles here today by a score of 6-2, 6-3, 14-12.

France has taken two of the three matches thus far played, and needs but one more to win. The last two singles are played tomorrow.

English Lady Golfers To Compete In France

CHANTILLY, France, June 22.—Thirty-four women golfers, including several Britishers, will compete in the international women's golf championship beginning here next Monday.

The favorites are Miss Gladys Fastin, last year's winner; Mrs. W. A. Gavin, the runner-up, and Miss Molly Gourlay, all of England.

THE FUTURE OF CRICKET

To the Sporting Editor:

Sir,—I think many who enjoy looking on at cricket from the benches must sympathize with a recent correspondent who foresees a loss of interest in the game unless something is done to put it on a better footing. At present it appears as if a few enthusiasts can get together some of the best players and form a team or perhaps two or three teams who can easily beat three or four others of the leftovers who may be equally keen but less experienced, or with less financial support, which results in discouragement to the players and loss of interest to the onlookers. This obviously suggests that in some way the better players should be more evenly distributed and so improve the game and its attractiveness to everybody.

Once more, therefore, I suggest what might be termed the territorial system, which would mean allotting each club a fixed residential area from which to draw their supporters, as for instance Oak Bay, Saanich, Esquimalt, North and South Victoria, and so on; then each section would have its club of honorary and playing members to encourage the game in senior, intermediate and junior teams who should be the pride of their immediate neighbors instead of friends scattered all over the city. To provide for residents moving, membership would be limited to those resident in the area at Easter each year. Though this must necessarily mean the severing of many old ties and associations would it not be worth it if the grand old game is sustained and developed in our midst instead of the reverse, as seems not impossible?

Eagles Are Waiting For Signal to Start

League Leaders Will Be at Full Strength Today for Their Baseball Scrap With Players From the Land of Their Symbolic Bird—Start at Stadium at 3 o'Clock This Afternoon

MANAGER Potts, of the Eagles announces that everything is in readiness for the exhibition baseball game between his aggregation of warriors and the Seattle Athletic Club at the Stadium this afternoon, and given good weather, a record-breaking crowd is expected to be on hand when Umpire McGregor gets the boys away at 3:00 o'clock.

All Keyed Up

Keyed up by their victory over the Automotives on Thursday evening, the boys are anxious to get things started and just rarin' to go, and the game is expected to be one of the best staged at the local park this season. Today's game will be the sixth exhibition put on by the league since the opening of the season and the games to date have resulted in three victories, one loss and one tie game, the C.P.R. defeating Port Angeles and tying with the University of Washington, the Eagles defeating Nanaimo, and the Automotives getting a decision over Friday Harbor, but falling before the fast-stepping sailors from the cruiser Omaha. Manager Potts is anxious to add another victory to the locals' string and will trot out his strongest possible lineup against the Yankee visitors.

The Logical Choice

"Red" McDonald still appears to be the logical choice for the hurling honors, with Jack Noble and Johnny Kerr ready to take their turn on the firing line if necessary. McGinnis will don the shin guards and look after the receiving end. Green or Jimmy Cummins will cover first, Dunn second, Herb Cummins short and Frank Moore third base. The outfield will be well looked after with Robinson in left, Richdale in centre and Porter in right.

The Eagles have set a furious pace in the amatur league so far this season and at the present time appear to be the class of the league. If the visitors come up to expectations the fans should be treated to a fine exhibition of baseball during the afternoon. The game will be called sharp on time as the Seattle club will leave on the evening boat at 5:30.

ANOTHER PROTEST

NANAIMO, June 22.—The Connaught Cup soccer game scheduled for tomorrow between Nanaimo City and Cumberland at Ladysmith has been postponed, in view of the protest of the I.L.A. team, which maintains that Brown, of the Nanaimo City team, was a professional, and has not been reinstated in amateur circles.

The protest will be heard at the monthly meeting of the B.C.F.A., to be held in Nanaimo on Saturday night next.

It has been suggested in some quarters that the Connaught Cup be renamed "The Protest Cup."

BRITISH SPORT LETTER

London, June 4.

(Special correspondence by Donald Vick. Copyright.)

The belated inquiry into the Coventry City-Bury match of 1921 has now been concluded and the verdict is that the match was "squared." As a result sundry officials have been forbidden to hold office in any football capacity and sundry players have been forbidden to play in any game for periods ranging from twelve months to eternity.

The necessity for the verdict is very deplorable and the sentences are just. It is a good thing for the game when crooked players and crooked managers reap the rewards of their iniquity, but a good many people, and I confess to being one of them, are of the opinion that there have been committed much more recently that have been offences of a more serious nature committed much more recently that have been ignored or overlooked.

The admitted reason for the crooked work in the Coventry versus Bury case was that one team was in danger of relegation and that the other very wrongly, but very chivalrously, allowed those in danger to take two points which they would otherwise probably have failed to earn.

To the man with the real sporting instinct it seems incredible that any manager or player could descend to such tactics for such rewards. But even that sordid motive pales into insignificance beside the motives which actuated a similar piece of chicanery which happened last season.

Two clubs were drawn to play an important game. One was a world famous team, the other a little known eleven hailing from an obscure town. The result was a draw. The replay, contrary to the usual custom was arranged to take place on the same ground and the result was then a win for the bigger team by a margin that almost reached double figures and, had the players exerted themselves, could have been twice as great.

Here the motive was one of sheer sordid greed for gate money and the lesser known eleven went home with an extra thousand pounds for which it must be supposed they bartered their honor cheerfully.'

And yet, although practically every sporting writer in the Kingdom referred in guarded terms to the obvious fact that the first game was "squared" there was no inquiry and several managers and players, who all should be hounded out of the game, are still holding their positions.

Nineteen Stalwarts

All sorts of statistics relating to football are given to the world at about this time of the year. Not the least interesting fact that has been disclosed is that during the whole of last season the League Champions, Liverpool, played only nineteen men in the forty-two league matches played by the club. This is a striking tribute to the abilities not only of the players, but of the trainer. Three of the team, Forshaw, McKinlay and Scott, were never absent from the eleven, and another, Longworth, was only away once on the occasion of the England versus Scotland match, when he was playing for his country.

In the leagues there is only one other club who can equal this record with regard to the number of players, and that is Nelson, who gained promotion to the second division. They, however, only had to play thirty-eight games.

The Finance of the Cup

There is still money in the Cup, even when, as was the case this year, the game is little more than a fiasco. Bolton Wanderers, as winners of the trophy, take the larger share of the spoils and their cheque amounted to £8,070 from the semi-final and final ties. West Ham, the defeated finalists, take £7,700.

There are, of course, certain small outgoings which have to be met from these receipts, but to reach the semi-final of the Cup means freedom from financial worry, at all events, for a season or two. West Ham is devoting a considerable portion of their gains to the enlargement of their ground, and not a little to the building up of a team with which they may have some reasonable chance of maintaining their position in the first division.

On the other side of the ledger there are several clubs which, I am told, are in very low water financially. One of them is Queen's Park Rangers who, though they are situated in the heart of a populous suburb of London, lost much money last season. They are facing the position, however, and have resigned most of their players for the coming season.

After Sixty Years

For over sixty years there has been nothing in the rules of football which definitely laid down how and when a game was won or lost or how the result of a game should be determined.

There will be no ground for mistake in the future, however, for all the majesty of the Football Association annual meeting was assembled to decide the matter, and a new law has been evolved. It has been agreed that "a game shall be won by the team scoring the greater number of goals; if no goals are scored, or the scores are equal at the end of the game, the game shall be drawn." So now we know!

Cricket Weather Wanted

Since the beginning of the cricket season we have had three days on which the weather was really fit for cricket—and one of those was a Sunday! Cricketers are despairing. Matches are being stopped or postponed, or, when they are played, are being carried out in rain or hail or beneath dull lowering clouds, which take the heart from spectator and player alike.

However, amidst all the discomforts of this arctic Summer, followers of the game are anxiously looking for the talent which is going to help England to regain her lost prestige. There are hopeful signs. Quite a number of schoolboys are putting up excellent performances, which augur well for the future; there appears to be considerable talent at the universities—we shall be better able to judge after the university match—and a number of the counties seem to have discovered new blood, which is infusing some new vitality into the game.

In addition to all this, there are several players who, though by no means newcomers, have not played for England, and seem to be showing test match form. Most notable among these are Kilner and Sutcliffe, both of Yorkshire. Up to the end of the week, the first named had taken twenty-seven wickets for Yorkshire at a cost of six runs apiece. That is a pretty useful record, which at once classes him with the finest slow bowlers of the day. Sutcliffe is Yorkshires' best bat—and the best bat in the strongest county ought to be worth a place in any country's XI.

Altogether there are grounds for hope that a better day is coming. But we do want weather that will make real cricket possible.

A Derby Story

The combination of Derby Week and Wintry weather that demands the wearing of a heavy overcoat in June is unfortunate. The greatest of races attracts many thousands of folk to the Epsom Downs and it will be an uncomfortable day for the most of them.

Almost before this letter leaves England, the result of the race will be known, so that speculation as to the winner is useless. More than any other racing event in the year, Derby Day is a picnic. On the Downs there will be more than one hundred refreshment booths, and the supplies of food and drink that have to be carted to the course are enormous.

For the grand stand refreshment rooms alone, the week's supply includes 60,000 bottles of beer, 1,250 bottles of whiskey and nearly 3,000 bottles of champagne—I trust that my Canadian readers will forgive me quoting these figures. As for more solid provisions, there will be two tons of meat, one and a half tons of ham, and a ton of salmon.

And in view of all these facts the most amazing thing is that the ordinary racegoer will find it the most difficult thing to get a decent meal.

The Open Golf

Walter Hagen, the American golfer who holds the open championship, has come over to defend his title on the Troon links this month, and has brought with him eleven other American high lights in the golfing world, amongst them being Gene Sarazen, whose reputation has preceded him. We are anxious enough to win back the title, but to be candid about it, we do not know who is likely to do it. I am, for my own part, afraid that the odds are against us, though it is just possible that George Duncan or Abe Mitchell may bring about a surprise.

Reds and Blues Will Fight It Out Again

With no league match on their fixture list today, the Mann Cup lacrosse aspirants of Victoria will play another test match at the Stadium this evening, where the Reds and the Blues, who opposed each other last week, will again be seen in action. As there will be no charge for admission, it is expected that there will be quite a number of followers of the game on hand to size them up and cheer their efforts.

V.I.A.A. Is Opening Its Summer Season at Curtis Point Today

The V.I.A.A. will hold the official opening of its Summer quarters at Curtis Point this afternoon, when the members will participate in an impromptu programme of aquatic and land sports. At 6 o'clock the members will hold a basket picnic, and a dance will be held in the evening, when the music will be supplied by Mrs. Kennedy and Teddy Holder.

Balance Sheet Proves West Ham's Popularity

LONDON, June 22—That West Ham last season reached the pinnacle of popularity among metropolitan football teams which the Tottenham Hotspurs had held so many years, was proved Wednesday when their balance sheet revealed a profit of £8,362. The club spent £12,688 in salaries and wages. A dividend of five per cent was recommended by the directors, free from income tax.

New Junior Baseball Team Is Organized

A new team is making its appearance in the ranks of junior baseball. The first half of the season's schedule has been completed, but the Gorge team, the new-comers to the league, will take part in the second half, and will play their first game against the Boys on Wednesday next at Central Park, at 6:30. Harry Savage is the president of the new club, and A. J. Morley the manager. The players are all residents of the Gorge district.

SONS OF CANADA DEFEAT THE BAYS

THIRTY RUNS SCORED IN COMMERCIAL LEAGUE GAME

Sixteen to Fourteen the Score Book Showed When Sluggers Finished Their Batting Practice

The Sons of Canada retained their lead in the race in the Commercial League when they defeated the Hudson's Bay nine, 16-14, last night at the Central Park. The game was featured by the great number of hits that were poled out by the sluggers of both clubs. The Sons had an off night, no less than eight errors being chalked up against them. The game was anybody's right up until the last apple had been chucked across the rubber. When the Canadians came to bat in their half of the eighth they were two runs behind. However, they scored four tallies, thus winning the battle.

One feature of the game was the home run hit by Price, of the department store team, who slashed the apple into deep centre.

Smiler Pettigrew was calling the good ones and the bad ones, his umpiring amusing the interested spectators greatly.

The batteries were as follows:

Native Sons of Canada—Curtis, Miller and Plows, Hilton.

Hudson's Bay—Taylor, Stewart and Pollock.

The Gaiety Theatre was full, and a considerable sum of money was realized. The party came to Comox in the Powell River Company's launch, and were brought to Courtenay in cars provided by the local Elks.

ANNUAL GARDEN FETE

Ladies' Aid of Courtenay Presbyterian Church Holds Satisfactory Picnic and Bazaar

COURTENAY, June 22.—Favored with beautiful weather, the Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church yesterday afternoon and evening held its annual garden fete and Summer bazaar. The event took place on the lawn at the home of Mrs. Nisbet, Mill Street, and attracted several hundred people. The various booths were daintily arranged under spreading maples, and flags, pennants and bunting had been used in a decorative scheme that made the scene a bright one. The booths were in charge of the following ladies: Sewing, Mrs. Herbert Smith and Mrs. Oscar Davis; candy, Mrs. Walter Brown; home cooking, Mrs. H. Loggie, Mrs. Frad Kerton; bran dip, Mrs. Fielder and Mrs. Pretsell. The ice cream, strawberries and cream, and tea were served by the other members of the Aid, practically all members being present to assist. Supper was served at six o'clock on tables placed on the lawn.

After the afternoon and early evening activities a sing-song was held, led by Mr. J. H. Macintyre, with Mr. Horace Everett at the piano. An orchestra comprising Messrs. L. Moody, J. Carwithen, N. Smith, H. Thorpe, Roy Cliffe, R. Sutherland, C. Rive and Stuart Smith played very acceptably several selections. Soloists during the evening were Mrs. L. D. Piket, Mrs. J. H. Macintyre, Mr. Herbert Smith and Prof. Turner. Mr. William Stubbs acted as auctioneer, and sold several cakes that had been left over from the bazaar.

The concluding event was the passing of a vote of thanks to Mrs. Nisbet for the use of her grounds and Mr. Joseph McPhee for the loan of his piano. "Auld Lang Syne" and "God Save the King" closed a remarkably successful day.

GOOD BERRY CROP

Langford Fruitgrowers Have Excellent Season—Women's Institute Meeting on Tuesday

LANGFORD, June 21.—The land at Langford has provad to be excellant for strawberry growing. The ground devoted to berries at Lochnagar, the residence of Mr. C. Setchfield and worked by Mr. Kitley, has yielded a bumper crop, employing all the available local girls as pickers.

All the smaller fruit growers report good cropa.

Institute Meeting

On Tuesday afternoon next the monthly meting of the Langford Women's Institute will be held on their new recreation grounds, Dunford Road, at 2 o'clock. After the business of the afternoon is transacted, Mrs. C. Spofford, authoress of "The Busy Women's Handbook on Civics and Laws," will address the meeting on "Legislation." It is hoped that all the members and any friends interested in this vital question will endeavor to be present.

ELK LAKE GROUNDS

ROYAL OAK, June 22.—Great improvements have been made on the grounds of the Elk Lake Athletic Association on the west side of the lake. Two very good diving boards have been provided and a splendid racetrack made, besides many minor improvements, in connection with the well and clearing of underbrush. The building of two bathing houses will commence at once and it is proposed to do the work by a number of "Bees"—the younger element being called upon to assist in the work of building.

The executive expressed appreciation of the Saanich Council's action in making a grant of $75 to help finance the bathing houses.

The beaches and parks committee have also done a great deal, the clearing, racetrack and toilet accommodations being provided by them.

The association is planning a "sports day" sometime the later part of July.

The Royal Oak Institute extends a hearty invitation to all members and friends to attend their silver strawberry social tonight (Saturday), at Deer Lodge, Elk Lake, the residence of the secretary, Mrs. Hodgson. The Institute will have its regular meeting at 8 o'clock and the social at 9 o'clock.

INTERESTING EVENTS AT ROYAL OAK SCHOOL

Splendid Exhibit of Work by Pupils—Prizes Awarded—Presentation Made to Retiring Teacher

ROYAL OAK, June 22.—A very interesting and enjoyable afternoon was spent by parents and pupils of Royal Oak School yesterday, when a particularly splendid exhibit of work accomplished by the children during the past year was arranged by the teachers, Miss Kinaird, Miss Hole and Miss Chandler.

The first part of the afternoon was devoted to the exhibits of writing, maps, designs, painting and drawing. A display of manual training articles brought forth many expressions of admiration for the pieces of work on view, and spoke well for the manual training classes as conducted by Mr. Hunter in Saanich.

Miss K. Oldfield, president of the Victorian Order of Nurses, Saanich branch, presented diplomas to the Little Mothers of Royal Oak School, as follows: E. Brooks, M. Saunier, S. Ferrie, E. Whitehead, W. Whitehead, D. Fagerburg, S. Maynard, E. Pettit and C. Stone.

Prizes of books, donated by the principal, Miss Kinaird, for general proficiency, were won by Hugh Allison, W. Campbell, Charles Pimlott and E. Brooks, and were also presented by Miss Oldfield, who congratulated the winners in a few well-chosen words. Miss Hole's pupils entertained those present with a delightful little programme, after which afternoon tea was served.

A happy event took place when four little pupils, Misses Amy Lee, S. Ferrie, E. Brooks and E. Ferrie, presented Miss Hole, whose marriage takes place shortly, with a lovely silver cake tray, the gift of the pupils, and a set of salt and pepper casters, a cut-glass bowl and a pair of beautifully embroidered pillowslips, on behalf of Miss Kinaird, Miss Chandler and Mrs. Exton. The hearty good wishes of teachers, parents and pupils was expressed by the little girls, to which Miss Hole made suitable reply.

SHAWNIGAN LAKE BOARD OF TRADE MEETS

SHAWNIGAN LAKE, June 21.—The regular monthly meeting of the Cobble Hill and Shawnigan Lake branch of the Duncan Board of Trade was held in the S.L.A.A. Hall on Wednesday evening. Besides the chairman, Lt.-Col. F. T. Oldham, there were also present Col. Eardley-Wilmot, Messrs. H. W. Carter, E. M. Walbank, G. A. Cheeke, H. P. O'Farrell, E. D. Sheringham, L. W. Toms, W. H. Elford, F. T. Elford, S. Finley, S. J. Heald, A. Waterman, W. H. Bell, G. S. Gibson and the secretary.

As a result of the vacancy for a shoemaker in Cobble Hill still remaining unfilled, the hon. secretary was authorized to advertise for a man.

Mr. R. Elford, in reporting for the Roads Committee, drew attention to the fact that various work promised was not being carried out. In this connection the secretary was instructed to arrange a meeting, if possible, between the Assistant District Engineer and the Roads Committee.

A resolution was passed requesting action by the Board to expedite the construction of a railway crossing between Lot 16, Block 9, Shawnigan, and Lot 16, Block 1, Malahat.

The question as to access to the south end of Shawnigan Lake railway station was again brought up, and the matter is to be put before the Council once more.

Mr. G. A. Cheeke reported that so far the police had not complied with the request for the cutting down of Canada thistles in various parts of the district, and a further request is to be sent in.

The Organization Committee has been authorized to make arrangements for a picnic on the day of the quarterly meeting of the Board, which will be held at the S.L.A.A. on the last Wednesday in August.

It was resolved that the rules be amended so that the annual meeting of the branch will be held on the Wednesday immediately preceding the annual meeting of the Board.

DEATH AT NANAIMO

NANAIMO, June 21.—The death occurred in the Nanaimo Hospital Wednesday evening of William Henry Perry, aged thirty-six years. The late Mr. Perry was a native son of Nanaimo, and is survived by his widow and two children, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Perry, Nanaimo; five sisters, Mrs. Frys, Seattle; Mrs. F. Cannon, and Mrs. O. Thomas, Nanaimo; Mrs. J. Hawkins, Seattle, and Miss Mary, residing at home, and three brothers, Oliver, John and Albert, all of whom reside in this city. The funeral arrangements have not yet been announced.

PORT ALBERNI

PORT ALBERNI, June 21.—At the sitting of the County Court today before Judge Barker, the civil action of Peter Erchuk against James McDanielle for damages as the result of being struck by McDanielle' automobile on Argyll Street in September last was heard. Mr. L. A. Hanna represented the plaintiff, and Mr. V. B. Harrison, of Nanaimo, represented the defendant. Various witnesses, including the Chief of Police, two eye-witnesses of the accident, and the doctor who attended plaintiff, gave evidence. Judge Barker gave judgment in favor of plaintiff for the sum of 350 and costs. The case of Alex. Cruickshank against Joe Drinkwater for damages to his car as the result of a collision with the latter's motor, was called, but His Honor decided that he would not hear the case, but would refer it to County Court Judge McIntosh, who would be here in a couple of weeks.

Fatal Accident

An inquest was held last night by Coroner L. A. Hanna to inquire into the death of Mr. A. Gonsalez as the result of an accident at the Alberni Pacific Lumber Company's mill on Saturday last. Owing to a breakage in the friction gear machinery the unfortunate man evidently tried to hold the conveyor chain, and in some manner got caught in the rapidly revolving machinery, his arm being torn off and his body so severely injured that he succumbed shortly afterwards. It was found that the accident was not due to negligence or fault on anybody's part, and a verdict was returned accordingly. The deceased leaves a widow and four small children.

Dominion Day Celebration

The Alberni Women's Auxiliary of the West Coast General Hospital is taking charge of the Dominion Day celebrations, which will be held on Monday, July 2. Among the new features this year will be a parade of floats and decorated automobiles, and in view of the large number of trucks and cars in the district a considerable entry is expected. Substantial cash prizes will be awarded the two best floats, the two best cars, the two best bicycles, and the best comic entry. A grand dance will also be held in the evening. The Auxiliary hopes to make the celebration as big a success as that held by it last year, which practically enabled the hospital to wipe off its floating debt.

WEDDING AT ALBERNI

PORT ALBERNI, June 20.—A very pretty wedding took place last Wednesday evening at All Saints Church, Alberni, the Rev. G. Arthur Bagshaw officiating, when Dorothy Rose, eldest daughter of Mrs. A. H. Gates, of Bute Street, Port Alberni, and formerly of Victoria, became the bride of Mr. J. C. Hickford, also of Victoria but at present residing here. The bride, who was given away by her mother, was charmingly dressed in white organdie, with bridal veil and orange blossom, and was attended by Miss Roxey Donnelly as bridesmaid, little Elsie Violet Gates, sister of the bride, acting as flower girl. Mr. Harry Pickles supported the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Hickford left on Thursday morning for Nanaimo and on their return will take up their residence in Port Alberni.

Magnetic shears with which needles may be picked from the floor have been invented.

POPULARIZED ART PROVIDES NOVELTY

Arts and Crafts Society Entertained in Original Manner With Shadowgraphs, Tableaux and Games

"A pot-pourri of popularized art" should have been the title of the "evening" which the Arts and Crafts Society gave Wednesday night at their rooms in the Union Bank Building. It was quite a unique entertainment that they provided for the diversion of the visitors, and the organizers of the affair won many compliments for the very artistic and orignal character of the affair.

The programme, which was chiefly directed by Mrs. George Phillips, Miss Crease, and Mr. MacGill, opened with a picture-title guessing game, the details of which were worked out by Miss Crease. Numbers of the best known pictures were displayed, and the members of the audience each and all entered the contest of guessing the titles of these, and the names of the artists. Mrs. F. B. Pemberton won first prize with the biggest number of correct titles; Miss Agnew took second prize; and Mrs. W. B. Young, third.

Picture guessing contest answers were as follows:

"Chapeau de Poil," Sir Peter Lely; "Dawn," J. Farquharson; "Portrait of Rubens," Ruhens; "Mona Lisa," Da Vinci; "Sir Walter Scott," Lawrence; "Innocence," Greuze; "Sands of Towyn," B. W. Leader; "Eventide," H. von Herkomer; "Duke of Gloucester, Son of Charles I," Sir Peter Lely; "Baptismal Font," Landseer; "The Cavalier," Messouler; "Rubens' Wife," Rubens; "Dante and Beatrice," Henry Holiday; "Mrs. Carnac," Reynolds; "Jewish Rabbi," Rembrandt; "Grief," Greuze.

Following this competition there were some cleverly arranged tableaux, for which Mrs. Phillips was responsible. These represented three well-known advertisements, for Palm Olive Soap, Coleman's Mustard, and Bon Ami; the posing, which was extraordinarily good, being done by Mr. George Phillips and Miss Phillips. The details of costume and color were excellent.

But the versatility of talent had not yet reached its limits. Mr. MacGill concluded the evening's entertainment with a series of shadowgraphs, a form of entertainment which is almost unknown here. With a dexterous alteration in the position of hands and fingers he produced shadows of a whole menagerie of animals, every one of which was immediately recognized by the spectators; and character sketches of such famous personalities as the late King Edward, King George, Chamberlain, Harry Lauder, and others equally renowned in their way.

After the entertainment there were delicious refreshments, served by Mrs. W. H. P. Sweeney, Mrs. Nathaniel Shaw, and Miss Lettice. Mr. Victor Long, the eminent portrait painter who is in the city painting a portrait of His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, was among the honored guests.

"ROMANCE LAND" IS UNIQUE PHOTOPLAY

Last Showing Will Be Given Tonight at Columbia Theatre—Tom Mix Is Leading Star

After a highly successful run of three days, "Romance Land," Tom Mix romantic film reminiscent of the days of Sir Walter Scott's "Ivanhoe," comes to an end tonight at the Columbia Theatre.

Many things have been written and said in praise of this photoplay. It is difficult to suppress the impulse to write still more. If you have not seen Tom Mix in this Fox production, ask your friends who were at the Columbia. Then start for the theatre lickety-split. There may be enough people in Victoria who did not see "Romance Land" to crowd the house. And very likely they will all be there tonight, because it is hardly probable that they will lose the final opportunity to view such a unique and fanciful entertainment.

CAPITOL THEATRE One of the best of British films is "Diana of the Crossways." Diana is the role that Fay Compton, the famous English actress, chose for her initial Canadian screen appearance. Supported by an all-star West End cast of unusual talent, and directed by one of the best of British directors, Denison Cleft, George Meredith's popular story has been visualized on the screen in a manner that is highly creditable to the Ideal Film producers—a company of well-known London producers. The story deals with high society and court life. It will play at the Capitol for the last time today.

ROYAL THEATRE The famous English comedy success, "A Sister to Assist 'Er," which will be shown for the last time today at the Royal, is somewhat along the lines of the big English success of a few years back, "Three Live Ghosts." The principal character, Mrs. May, is at times reminiscent of that other English charlady, who made the biggest hit of all the characters in "Three Live Ghosts"; however, Mrs. May is far superior to the former, as she is rightly famed in the London music-halls as one of the greatest fun-merchants ever seen in England. When she is sober she is a hilarious character that would bring shrieks of laughter from any audience, but when she is "apply bibbed," she is joyous beyond all imagination. Do you know where Morvinia is? You will not find it in the atlas, but nevertheless it forms the locale for the tremendously captivating story of "Refuge," which is being shown in addition to the above feature. Lois Zellner wrote the story, and she demonstrates that she knows considerable about royalty and what goes on in kingdoms.

DOMINION THEATRE An entrancing story of the Hawaiian Islands is "The White Flower," a Paramount picture, starring Betty Compson, which will be shown for the last time today at the Dominion Theatre. Miss Compson plays the part of a young, half American, half Hawaiian girl, who is in love with a young American, the pineapple king of the island. Many are the plans which Miss Compson forms for winning this young fellow's love. In fact, she almost does away with his fiance by the aid of mysterious rites, so great is her love for him. She realizes, however, what she is about to do, and at the crucial moment her real womanhood asserts itself.

PLAYHOUSE THEATRE Characterized by all who have seen it as the most amusing and successful production that has been presented at the Playhouse since the talented Compton Comedy Company made its debut to a Victoria audience about six weeks ago, this week's offering, "The New Boy," a farce in three acts, is causing roars of laughter and bundles of chuckles to the patrons of this theatre. Francis Compton and members of his company gain fresh laurels by their splendid portrayal of their respective roles. If a person happens to feel a bit grouchy, discontented with things in general, or perchance, may be afflicted with an attack of the blues, one of the best tonics that can be prescribed is a visit to the Playhouse either this afternoon or tonight. The performance is full of life, pep, laughter and good acting, while the plot is a strong one and abounds in many ludicrous and humorous situations, which makes it impossible for those present to keep from giving vent to their feelings. The splendid shows that the Compton Comedy Company is providing are worthy of liberal support by citizens of this community, and the patronage that the concern is receiving is steadily increasing. Undoubtedly, "The New Boy" is one of the company's greatest successes, and it is staged in such an excellent manner that Victoria will have reason to feel sorry if they pass up the opportunity of seeing this comedy, so admirably presented.

FAMOUS ENGLISH ACTOR SECURES BIG ROLE IN NEW FILM

Although comparatively unknown to film fans in this country, Lewis Dayton, who is playing opposite Dorothy Phillips in "Slander the Woman," produced and directed by Allen Holubar, playing at the Royal all next week, is a star in his own right across the sea. His selection for the difficult characterization of Judge Duroacher in this forthcoming First National picture is an evidence of the care exercised by Director Holubar in assembling a cast. After considering the available actors the producer was not satisfied with any of those suggested for the role. Then Dayton's name and accomplishments were called to his attention—an interview followed and the engagement resulted. Shortly before coming to this country, Dayton achieved prominence on the English screen in the Stoll production entitled "The Mystery of Barnard Brown." Before that he had won his laurels as a film actor with various British companies, and also played in the Famous Players foreign production of "The Great Day." This English actor seems to possess all the qualities requisite for film popularity. Well built, even for his seventy-three inches, with dark brown hair and brown eyes, he presents an attractive, manly appearance; moreover, he at all times gives a convincing and forceful performance.

HERE EXAMINING FOR ASSOCIATED BOARD

Mr. Maurice Besley, of London, Eng., Is Visiting Canada for First Time —Now in Victoria

Mr. Maurice Besley, the young English conductor and composer, is at present in Victoria, a guest at Glenshiel Inn, examining for the Associated Board of the Royal Academy and Royal College of Music, London (England).

Since his London debut last November (his experience previous to that had been in Germany and Austria), he has conducted for the famous pianists Myra Hess and Leff Poulshnoff, and for the world-famous violinist Eugen Ysaye on the occasion of his reappearance at the Queen's Hall, London. For the coming season he has been selected, together with the famous Russian conductor, Koussevitski, to conduct the Scottish orchestra in Edinburgh and Glasgow. Mr. Besley is rapidly rising to prominence as a composer of the modern school, his songs being sung by the most eminent English singers, such as John Coates, Carrie Tubb, Dorothy Silk and Herbert Heyner, while his orchestral poem, "Mist in the Valley," and his choral work, "The Shepherds Had an Angel," have been acclaimed by press and public as works of great beauty and imagination.

Mr. Besley served all through the war, being a captain in the Royal Engineers, and in 1918 was wounded and captured. He was interned at Mainz, and during his orchestra debut in Vienna was recognized by one of his guards, who came up afterwards and recalled the less happy days.

Among his first impressions of Canada he readily refers to the excellence of the musical standard of the children, the excellence of the roads, the number of automobiles, and the varieties of ice creams.

AT AGE OF FOUR WAS GEORGE WASHINGTON

City Clerk Revives Memory of Time He Filled Distinguished Role Riding on Hose-Wagon

Inspired by the thought of Victoria's May Queen riding in the Fourth of July parade at Seattle, City Clerk E. W. Bradley groped down the dim reaches of memory yesterday and brought to light this historic fact, that at the age of four he had ridden in a Fourth of July parade as George Washington.

It was Mr. Bradley's fate to be born in San Francisco, of British parents, some few years ago. He resided in one of the towns about San Francisco Bay, and at the age of four it apparently was discovered that he bore a resemblance to the Father of the Republic. At any rate to him was given the signal honor of representing the immortal George. He rode on a hose-wagon. There is no record that Washington rode on a hose-wagon, but Mr. Bladley's appearance on the fire apparatus was in the nature of a compromise with the past.

The clerk has a dim recollection of going somewhere to meet Lady Washington, but he does not know much about this phase of the adventure, only portions of which remain in his memory.

The programme for the Fourth of July parade at Seattle has the Victoria May Queen leading section five. However, it is not definitely decided that Her Majesty Queen Dora will attend. It depends upon the cost to the city of Victoria. The price obtained here for ponies to pull the regal carriage is too high, and efforts are being made to arrange for ponies in Seattle.

GOAT BREEDERS TO HOLD EXHIBITION

Local Association Will Have Its Annual Show in Rear of City Hall Next Saturday

Victoria's fifth annual goat show will be held on Saturday, June 30. The local branch of the B.C. Goat Breeders' Association has again been fortunate enough to obtain the use of the convenient ground at the rear of the City Hall, and this will be fenced in with canvas for the show.

Entry forms are now in the hands of all members, and a large number of entries have already been received. Last year, just a hundred animals were exhibited, and the committee in charge looks forward confidently to seeing this total exceeded at the forthcoming show.

Three valuable challenge cups are offered for competition, chief among wrich is the Victoria Challenge Cup for teams of three animals, a milking goat, a yearling and a kid, and already the destination of this cup is arousing keen speculation among goat breeders.

The Saanen Cup for the best Saanen doe in milk, and the Toggenburg Cup for the best Toggenburg doe, are offered for competition for the first time. Each cup has to be won three years in succession before becoming the property of the winner.

In addition to the cups, many special prizes are offered.

The association offers a handsome diploma for the best kid of each breed. Several owners of stud bucks offer prizes of three, two and one dollars for the three best kids sired by their animals. A lady member offers three dollars and two dollars for the two goats showing evidence of most care and attention on the part of their owners, and this novel competition should arouse much interest. Prizes of three and two dollars are offered by a well-known Togg breeder for the Toggenburg does showing best milk formation. All winners, whether first, second or third, will receive one of the finely designed prize-cards of the association.

Entries will close on Wednesday, June 27, and positively no entries will be received after that date.

Soft, Curly, Wavy Hair Now Easy to Have

Beautiful, fluffy, natural-looking curls or waves, without the use of the ruleous curling iron, are now possible for every woman. Yes, not only possible, but very easily and quickly acquired, and with benefit to the life and health of the hair. It is only necessary to apply a little liquid stimerine before doing up the hair, using a clean toothbrush for the purpose. The hair will have a most delightful curliness and lustre, without the least suggestion of grease or stickiness, and will be quite controllable, no matter what the style of coiffure. As a few ounces of liquid stimerine from the druggist will last for months, it is quite inexpensive to use. (Advt.)

London News and Gossip

By Elizabeth Montizambert

By Elizabath Montizambert

LONDON, June 7.—Major Ashton, of the Soldier Settlement Board, is sailing for Canada in the SS. Montclare, after spending several months in England, where he has been able to arrange for the emigration to Canada of eighty-eight British settlers possessing an average capital of little less than £1,000.

Major Ashton goes back well satisfied with the progress made in finding the right type of emigrant, who, he hopes, will become through their success in Canada the best sort of propaganda to attract an increasing number of the same type. He tells me that he has found over here a number of people of the right sort who are looking towards Canada, but are not quite sure of the reception they would have on landing, and who wonder if they will be welcomed. It only needs an effort today, and an expression of real goodwill and determination on our part to see that settlers leaving here are settled under conditions that give a reasonable expectation for labor and intelligence to earn success, to bring Canada back to the place she has temporarily lost of favorite dominion for the better class of men from Great Britain.

Major Ashton finds that intending settlers now realize that they must have more than a mere invitation. They want expert advice and guidance, to prevent them from falling into the many pitfalls of the unwary. He paid a great tribute to the spirit of ready co-operation shown by the Canadian officials in London. The Canadian Pacific and the Canadian National Railways have circularized every booking agent in England, posters have been issued, and shipping agencies like the White Star have given the same practical assistance. The fact has been well advertised that Canada is ready to give guidance in the selection of land and stock, and financial assistance, if necessary.

Canadian Efforts

Australia and South Africa are looming so large on the London horizon at present that one is apt to forget how much distinguished work is being done by individual Canadians. A few days ago the announcement was made that Sir Campbel Stuart had been appointed to represent Canada on the governing body of the Imperial College of Science and Technology, and an extraordinary amount of interest has been aroused by Sir Campbell's idea of forming an historical association in England and France composed of families whose ancestors have been connected with Canadian administration or associated with its naval and military history. H. R. H. the Duke of Connaught, Lady Minto, the Duke of Devonshire are all keenly interested in Sir Campbell's idea, which, it is hoped, will lead to the formation of an association which will reveal sources of information, to quote Lady Minto, at present unsuspected.

The scheme will probably receive the hearty approval of Dr. Doughty, the Dominion archivist, whose labors over here during the last few months have resulted in the acquisition of an enormous mass of documents of value to Canada.

Race Betting

Apropos of the great race which recently dislocated the ordinary routine of English life, it is remarkable how much betting is on the increase among middle class people who never used to go in for this form of amusement. Nowadays you hear of old ladies asking their daughters or sons to "put something on" for them and the milliners and dressmakers trades should flourish in the next few weeks, for nearly every woman placed her money on Papyrus for the feminine reason that they liked Donoghue. The situation created by the preference of the English nation for having a throw with the goddess of chance, the while their laws declare betting illegal, is rather Gilbertion, and if a plebiscite were taken I have no doubt that there would be an overwhelming majority in favor of some form of legalized betting such as the pari-mutuel. As for lotteries, it is a sobering thought that the state would probably be enabled to clear away London slums with the proceeds of a series of biennial lotteries like those which are an annual source of revenue to continental countries.

The Servant Problem

It is rather startling for Canadians, accustomed to look upon England as an unfailing source of supply for servants, to find that the shortage over here, taken in connection with the amount of unemployment, has resulted in a solemn session of a ministry of labor committee to find out what is the matter. A great many reasons have been given including incompetent mistresses, lack of freedom, loneliness, long hours of work, the drudgery of housework, and a supposed loss of social status. A good deal of nonsense has been talked about the right way to entice a maid into the home and keep here there. One of the wisest suggestions was made by Mrs. St. Loe Strachey, who proposed that the mistress should take a course in domestic science so that training the mistress would do something to raise the status of the servant. That the problem is a real one is shown by the fact that there are 34,000 unemployed women in London alone and 1,000 vacancies for servants.

BETTER TRADING ON NEW YORK EXCHANGE

Substantial Rallies Were Noted in Many Stocks—No Change in the Money Market—Bonds Firm

NEW YORK, June 22.—Buying by "bargain hunters," combined with the more favorable sentiment over the immediate course of prices, gave the bond market a considerably better day today, and substantial rallies were noted throughout the list.

Strong banking support and a continuation of inside buying brought about another sharp rally in today's stock market, but trading was not on as extensive a scale as it was earlier in the week.

Absence of Selling Pressure

There was a noticeable absence of selling pressure among the standard stocks, but belated short covering operations were noted in a few issues. Some brokers reported a slight revival of outside participation.

The rally, which set in just before the close, was largely the result of covering by shorts in advance of the week-end.

Call money held at five per cent throughout the day. The time money and commercial paper markets were quiet with no change in rates. Foreign exchanges, with few exceptions, held steady. Demand sterling was quoted around $4.61⅛, and French francs around 6.20c. Italian exchange touched a new low for the year at 4.51 cents.

Government Bonds Steady

United States government bonds, which have held relatively firm throughout this week, continued steady, with the Liberty issues registering small gains. Gains of a point or more were recorded by Mexican 4's and 5's, and the Bolivian 8's and other foreign government issues improved fractionally.

Total sales, par value, were $10,358,000.

WINNIPEG WHEAT WAS MUCH STRONGER

Heavy Buying Taken to Indicate Revival of Export Business Buoyancy Shown During Session

WINNIPEG, June 22.—With the strength developed during the closing hours of Thursday's trading continuing, today's wheat market was much stronger than it has been for several days, with a considerable amount of business reported. The July position was exceptionally good today, heavy buying indicating a revival of the export business. A strong cash market also had influence, and throughout the session the market was buoyant. At the close July showed a gain of 2¼ cents and October 1⅛ cents.

Inspections yesterday totalled 308 cars, of which 220 were contract grades of wheat.

BOILS
Made Him Sick and Miserable

Mr. Richard Zalenzoski, McLean, Sask., writes:—"I had been suffering continuously with boils for three years, and during that time I tried many different remedies without any success whatever. In spite of all my efforts I was compelled to go to the hospital. That was in the Fall of the year, and right in the busiest time of the season. Upon my return home it just took about two weeks until my neck and arms were again occupied by the boils which made me feel very sick and miserable.

"One day one of my friends advised me to try Burdock Blood Bitters, and after I had used less than two bottles I was very much surprised at the result.

"It is now over two years since I got in touch with B. B. B., and I have had no bother with boils since. I will recommend it to all persons suffering from any defect in the blood."

B. B. B. is manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont. (Advt.)

MR. GORDON JAMESON MOVES TO VANCOUVER

Popular Young Business Man Opens Office at Terminal City—Active in City's Commercial Life

MR. GORDON JAMESON

Mr. Gordon Jameson, of the firm of the W. A. Jameson Coffee Company, of Victoria, has moved to Vancouver, where he has opened a commission office at 134 Abbott Street, which is in the heart of that city's business district.

His time will be devoted, mainly, to pushing the "Jameson line," in which he has unbounded confidence.

Victoria will greatly miss Mr. Gordon Jameson, as he was one of her energetic young business men. At different times he was most active on committees of the Rotary Club, notably, the municipal golf links committee, the never to be forgotten home products shows that were held in the Hudson's Bay building, and the industrial and agricultural committees of the Chamber of Commerce.

All his friends will wish him every success in British Columbia's commercial metropolis.

WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Relieved of Nervousness and Other Distressing Ailments by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Brooklyn, N. Y.—"I first took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound four years ago, and am taking it now for the Change of Life and other troubles and I receive great benefit from it. I am willing to let you use my letter as a testimonial because it is the truth. I found your booklet in my letter box and read it carefully, and that is how I came to take the Vegetable Compound myself. It has given me quiet nerves so that I sleep all night, and a better appetite. I have recommended it already to all my friends and relatives."—Mrs. ENGLEMANN, 2032 Palmetto St., Ridgewood, Brooklyn, N. Y.

For the woman suffering from nervous troubles causing sleeplessness, headache, hysteria, "the blues," Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will be found a splendid medicine. For the woman of middle age who is passing through the trials of that period, it can be depended upon to relieve the troubles common at that time.

You should give it a fair trial now.

NEW WHEAT WILL SOON BE MOVING

Export Demand in Chicago Was Moderate for the Day—Undertone Very Strong as to Corn

(Furnished by Burdick Brothers, Limited)

CHICAGO, June 22.—The market today has been fairly responsive to buying, and while there has been a good deal of pressure on the market in the way of realizing at times, there was support on the dips. Cash demand has been sufficient to clean up most of the supply of wheat here, but both are hard to get and it is hard to get together a fair sized cargo. However, the new wheat will be moving in volume shortly. The export demand today was moderate, judging from sales, which were light. Primary receipts are still a little less than a year ago. Flour inquiries are picking up a little, and prices are down to a comparatively low level with a well liquidated market. The period of northwest crop damage reports is at hand. The market will be two-sided, and we think the buying side is advisable on all setbacks for the time being.

Corn: Undertone very strong. Offerings from country have been a little larger, but are still far from normal, so that in this respect the longs have not much to fear at the moment. Argentine shipments are large, but this is to be expected, and as no export business of consequence is looked for it will have no great effect on our markets.

Oats: Firmer with wheat and corn, especially the latter. The cash demand was only fair, but prices steady for spot oats. Cash sales about 45,000 bushels. Country sales light, and western arrivals are larger than a year ago. Crop news in the main favorable. The market price level is comparatively low and should be in favor of buyers in recessions, as liquidation in this grain has been general.

DISTILLERIES LOOK TO THEIR REPUTATION

Mr. John McNish Says Care Is Taken to Put Only Best Liquors on the Market

In the course of the last decade and in particular in the period from August, 1914, to date, much criticism has been levelled against the whisky trade of Scotland. Mr. John McNish, of Messrs. Robert McNish & Company, Limited, Glasgow, Scotland, and London, England, being interviewed on this question during his recent visit to British Columbia, was quite frank in his statement.

"It is furthest from the desire of any Old Country house to place on the market anything but the very best and purest of whisky. Scotch whisky properly made and blended is admittedly the safest spirit produced and the leading houses of Great Britain have spent millions sterling in perfecting their brands and educating the public as to what to buy. Therefore no house of repute can afford to bottle inferior quality. Any government controlling the sale of liquor is in exactly the same position as a private concern which must maintain its reputation of handling the right article, and as the public is now thoroughly educated on the best brands devolves upon any government to carefully safeguard the situation by giving the public the best possible brands available, else there will be a day of reckoning for the government.

"In studying the system obtaining in British Columbia under the Liquor Control Board I was pleased to see that in every store at which I called there could be found all the best and most famous brands known in Scotland and I am satisfied that of all systems I have studied of sale under government control the British Columbia Government gives the public the straightest deal. There is one thing always to be considered, that no matter whether a government or a distillery handles whisky, they are open to be shot at and decried by interested parties, and after forty years' experience of the trade I know the snags and pitfalls placed in the way of trading in liquor, both by adverse interests and prohibitionists to prevent a straight deal with the public; but here if the public do not get the finest Scotch whisky to be obtained it is not because it cannot be found on the shelves of the government stores."

LABOR CANDIDATE WINS IN MORPETH

Robert Smillie, Socialist, Gets Big Vote—Government Loses in Tiverton Division

LONDON, August 22.—Robert Smillie, noted Labor leader and president of the Scottish Miners' Federation, has been elected to parliament from the Morpeth district, polling 20,053 votes against 13,087 for Mr. Thornborough, the Liberal candidate.

Morpeth is a safe Labor seat, but Smillie's poll is regarded as unusually large. He had previously made eight unsuccessful attempts at election.

Liberal Elected

TIVERTON, Devon, June 22.—The government lost a seat through the parliamentary by-election here today, F. D. Acland, Liberal, being elected member for the Tiverton division of Devonshire. He received 12,014 votes against 11,638 for Colonel A. Troyte, Conservative, and 495 for F. Brown, Laborite.

BIG FUTURE HERE FOR SEED CULTURE

Rotarians Enjoy Strawberry Feast at Gordon Head and Hear About New and Growing Industry

Importance of seed growing as a rural industry for Greater Victoria was impressed upon members of the Rotary Club at a strawberry supper, as the guests of Mr. Thomas Walker, under the shade of fir trees on his big Gordon Head farm. The Rotarians were given a few facts about the seed business by Mr. F. O. Blake, secretary-manager of the Sunset Seed Company, which operates on the Walker acreage.

The strawberry feast was the occasion of the regular weekly meeting of the club, over which Vice-President Frank Sehl presided in the absence of President James Adam. Reeve George F. Watson welcomed the members to Saanich and told a few things about his municipality. He claimed that Saanich was the first municipality in the Province to establish a bus service, and he admitted that the venture was paying. He held that Saanich had the lowest rates of taxation for a municipality of its kind in this Province, and he outlined some of the more important improvements which benefit residents of that district.

Mr. Blake recounted the events that led up to the organization of the Sunset Seed Company in January, 1921, saying that the company grew out of a partnership between himself and Mr. H. A. Hallwright. He said that Mr. H. B. Thomson had put the undertaking on its feet financially and had brought in Mr. Walker, whose farm was made the base of the company's operations.

Profitable Crops

"The hinterland of Victoria is, as you know, largely composed of small farms varying from five to one hundred acres, but perhaps mostly around ten acres," said Mr. Blake. "In order to make a living from such a place it is necessary to grow at least some intensive crops. This district is naturally adapted to the growing of a number of different crops for seed, each more or less intensive. The function then which our company hopes to perform is to replace the rotation crops which at present barely pay rent, with seed crops grown under contract from us. There is no reason why small fruits should be given up, but rather that other stabilizing crops be introduced. As the seed-growing industry is a very involved business, and its market a world market, it is almost impossible for the ordinary grower to attempt the work without the assistance of an established concern whose sole business is seed-growing and selection, and who is in touch with the outlets for seed.

"The company at present is growing only two or three crops commercially for seed, although a lot of experimental work is done. At the moment we specialize mainly in sweet peas, and while this crop will always be a very important one here, we by no means intend to confine our efforts to it.

Good Seed

"It has become a popular belief that this island produces good seed. The question here is: What constitutes good seed? Seed grown here, because of the long, cool, dry Summer, is of high germination and great vigor, providing the crop is properly harvested. These two qualities, although great assets, are by no means the most important. Seed must be primarily true to type; secondly, it must be bred from stocks which have every desirable quality. Providing seed has these qualities it is good seed, and though it only germinates 50%, is infinitely better than poor stocks of untried seed that germinate 100%. However, if one can combine good breeding with our natural advantages, then the result is ideal, but it cannot be too strongly impressed that it is breeding which counts so very much. Here is where the need of a central control arises, a control that can deal with all growers and crops impartially, to the end that all may benefit by the reputation which is bound to be made by excellent stocks of perfect natural quality. We must not hurry things, but gradually grow, learning as we go, and adding new business yearly.

"Fortunately the seed industry is fairly thoroughly protected from stampede, as nothing sells except through regular and established channels. While there will be quite a lot of business shortly for farmers who are willing to undertake this work with its responsibilities, the youth of today will be largely the growers in the future.

"At this moment, when industries are much talked of, perhaps the greatest work in the Peninsula is in selecting and training children to understand seed culture and to develop the infinite care required in this work."

IS VOUCHER CHECK WORTH TIME SPENT?

Claimed Finance Committee Should Concentrate on Larger Problems and Forego Details

If the Finance Committee is to devote time to matters of policy and the larger problems requiring its attention, it will have to give the same cursory attention to the approval of vouchers as past committees are alleged to have done, it is stated at the City Hall. This year's committee has not been endorsing all expenditures, because it was informed that a new system was in vogue and endorsing vouchers was no longer necessary. It has since discovered that it is still required to "audit" all vouchers. A bylaw which has passed all but its final stage calls for the approval of all expenditures, but eliminates the word "audit."

It is claimed that the committee, if it is to do its other work properly, cannot give attention to the details of the vouchers before approving them, and that a formal approval without this is not worth while.

Alderman Woodward, chairman of the Finance Committee last year, asserts that it has been the custom in the past to go through the form of approving the vouchers, but that this really meant nothing, as the committee members had not time to consider individual items.

ENTERTAINS SHIPS ON HIS NATAL DAY

Mr. Shanks Will Celebrate Birthday by Looking After Hawaii Maru and Craftsman

Frequenters of the waterfront are just beginning to discover the many fine qualities of Mr. A. E. Shanks, manager of the shipping department of Rithet Consolidated Limited. Mr. Shanks' birthday falls on July 2, and he plans to celebrate the notable occasion by entertaining two steamers in port. The day, moreover, will be a public holiday. The two ships will be the Hawaii Maru, of the Osaka Shosan Kaisha, and the Craftsman, of the Harrison Direct Line. The Japanese vessel is speeding from Yokohama at the present time, anxious to make port on the auspicious day of Mr. Shanks' nativity. The Craftsman is steaming up from the Panama Canal with the same determined purpose.

It is true, perhaps, that the day will be a holiday anyway, and that the steamers are due on that particular day, anyway. Coincidences of that nature, however, do not alter the fact to friends of Mr. Shanks that he will gather his office assistants and his acquaintances of the customs and immigration services about him and go down to the Rithet piers to entertain two vessels from foriegn ports on that day, and that it will be his birthday and a public holiday observed from one end of the Dominion to the other.

LOCH GOIL DUE AT MONTH'S END

Royal Mailer Has Seventy Tons of London Freight to Land at Victoria.

The Loch Goil, of the Royal Mail Steam Packet Line, will be here from London and the continent about the end of the month with some Victoria cargo, according to the agents, Findlay, Durham & Brodie. The vessel sailed from San Pedro June 19 for Seattle. She has about fifty tons to discharge at this port, and will probably take a little away as well.

The Time used is Pacific Standard, for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight. The figures for height serve to distinguish High Water from Low Water. Where blanks occur in the tables, the tide rises or falls continuously during two successive tidal periods without turning.

The Height is in feet and tenths of a foot, above the average level of lower Low Water.

THREE LINERS WILL MAINTAIN NEW RUN

Panama Pacific Line to Open Service in Autumn—To New York in Eighteen Days

Mr. C. P. Sargent, Manager of the International Mercantile Marine Company, Seattle, has just received a wire from his company confirming the reopening of the Panama Pacific Line between San Francisco, Los Angeles and New York, through the Panama Canal and calling at Havana.

The International Mercantile Marine will place in service the three large oil-burning passenger and cargo steamers Kroonland, Finland and Manchuria. The first sailing from New York will be the Kroonland, October 18, followed by the Finland, November 1, and the Manchuria November 22; and the first sailing from San Francisco will be the Kroonland, November 10, followed by the Finland, November 24, and the Manchuria, December 15, with regular sailings thereafter every two or three weeks.

The Kronoland and Finland will have accommodations for 250 first-class passengers at rates of $250 and up; 250 second-cabin passengers at rates of $150 and up, and a large number of third-class passengers at rates of $100 up. The Manchuria will have accommodations for 350 first class at rates of $250 and up; and a large number of intermediate cabin passengers at rate $125 up.

These steamers will render an extremely fast passenger and freight service of eighteen days from San Francisco and sixteen days from Los Angeles to New York, and will have a generous refrigerator and cool air space which should prove very attractive to shippers along the Pacific Coast.

DRAMATIST RETURNS TO PACIFIC COAST

Harrison Liner Is Making Another Voyage—Due at Victoria End of August

The Dramatist, of the Harrison Line, is fixed for another voyage to the Pacific Coast, Rithet Consolidated, Limited, have been advised. The vessel will close at Glasgow July 14, and sail direct for the canal. She is due at Victoria about August 30. Captain W. E. Harraden is the master.

The Dramatist was here several months ago. She was in port, in fact, on the night of the big February snow storm. Captain Harraden had intended to sail for Vancouver early that evening, but when he found his ship well nigh buried in snow, and tugging at her moorings before the force of the blizzard, he decided to keep to his snug berth at the Rithet piers for the night.

MAKURA TO MAKE PORT EARLY TODAY

The Makura, of the Canadian-Australasian Line, will reach quarantine at 6 o'clock this morning, Captain Robert Crawford, master of the vessel, reported by wireless yesterday. She is expected alongside the Rithet piers by 8:30 a.m., Victoria time.

Seven years ago the Lusitania was sunk by the Germans; today the sequel is being enacted. Claims by American life insurance companies against the German government for losses which the companies paid prematurely by reason of the sinking of the liner, are being heard by a joint commission, representing the American government and Germany

There are over 10,000 cases against Germany arising out of this ruthless act. These interest practically every insurance company on this continent. It will take many months for the commission to consider all of them. Fifteen test cases have been presented to the commission by agreement to serve as pattern for similar cases.

Happily travel is not fraught with the dangers that prevailed when the submarine warfare was in vogue, although there are always accident possibilities in travel. But the sinking of the Lusitania provides an object lesson for the benefits of life insurance. Death comes at most unexpected times and often under unusual circumstances. It is well to be adequately insured, for come it must to everyone. The race with death by life insurance is often a close one. Less than two days before his death occurred, James F. Bent, superintendent of the R. G. Bent & Co., who was killed in the collapse of the Fuller Brush Company tower at Hartford, Conn., had received a new life policy under which his estate will receive $10,000, in addition to other insurance he already carried.

U.S. CUTTER LEAVES FOR SEIZURE SCENE

Bear to Investigate Reasons of the Soviet Action in Arresting American Schooners

TACOMA, June 22—The coastguard cutter Bear has left Nome for East Cape, Siberia, where four American schooners, including the Iskum, of Tacoma, were recently seized by Soviet authorities, charged with violating the trading regulations.

WASHINGTON, June 22. — The coastguard cutter Bear, ordered to East Cape to use its good offices in the situation created by the seizure of American schooners by Soviet authorities, it was indicated here, is expected to obtain information as to exactly what occurred and also to be of assistance if opportunity offers. It was emphasized at the State Department that the commander of the cutter had no diplomatic functions and would not be acting officially for the government in any steps he might take. Inasmuch as Soviet Russia has not been recognized by the United States, it was pointed out that American owners can not expect any official action to be taken with the Soviet authorities and that ships entering Soviet waters do so at their own risk.

Canadian Purchases Russian Schooner

Mr. T. E. Marshall has purchased the schooner Alaska, a staunch vessel, 57 feet long and fitted with auxiliary engines. The Alaska is well known in the north. Built in Seattle, she was later purchased by the Canadian Government for the Stefansson expedition. Later she was sold to a trading company in Siberia and shifted to the Russian flag. Then, through financial difficulties she came back to Seattle. She is still under the Russian flag, but the new owner is endeavoring to change it to Canadian.

WOMEN NEEDED IN TOBA RIVER AREA

Settlement Success Impossible Without Them, Government Officials State After Investigation

Young women who would become the wives of settlers in a new country and be willing to do their share of pioneering would find a paradise in the the Toba River country, north of Powell River, according to word brought back by Provincial Government investigators.

"We were asked by the settlers to make an examination of the agricultural prospects of their region," states the report. "They fancied they had a real problem, and so they had—in a way. But the problem wasn't solely agricultural.

"We found these settlers living on a wonderfully fertile soil. There are twenty to thirty thousand acres of arable land there, although only about two thousand acres have been taken up and these have been cultivated only in a few places. The men are there and their prospects of success are within their own control. All they have to do is work.

"The greatest need, however, is women settlers. They are needed to give the men inspiration and keep things in order. There can be no real settlement without them."

ALBERNI SHIPPING

Malaspina Arrives on Visit—Princess Mary in Port With Many Passengers

PORT ALBERNI, June 22.—The Canadian Government Fisheries Patrol boat Malaspina arrived in port yesterday.

The S.S. Princess Mary has, for the time being, taken over the West Coast run of the Princess Maquinna, and arrived in port this evening. This is one of the special Summer round trips from Victoria to Rivers Inlet, lasting about eight days, and the passenger list is exceptionally heavy, amongst those on board being Mr. H. J. Cambie, Mr. and Mrs. Neville Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. McGaffin, all of Vancouver.

FRENCH AVIATOR WILL FLY TO POLE

PARIS, June 22.—The French aviator who will fly over the North Pole, according to The Excelsior, is Lieutenant de Payer. The officer plans to make his trial base at Virgin Bay, Spitabergen, which is 720 miles from the pole.

It is hoped that the expedition, which will employ two planes, will be able to start next Summer.

TELLS DYSPEPTICS WHAT TO EAT

Avoid Indigestion, Sour Acid Stomach, Heartburn, Gas On Stomach, Etc.

Indigestion and practically all forms of stomach trouble, say medical authorities, are due nine times out of ten to an excess hydrochloric acid in the stomach. Chronic "acid stomach" is exceedingly dangerous, and sufferers should do either one of two things.

Either they can go on a limited and often disagreeable diet, avoiding foods that disagree with them, that irritate the stomach and lead to excess acid secretion, or they can eat as they please in reason and make it a practice to counteract the effect of the harmful acid and prevent the formation of gas, sourness or premature fermentation by the use of a little Bisurated Magnesia at their meals.

There is probably no better, safer or more reliable stomach antacid than Bisurated Magnesia, and it is widely used for this purpose. It has no direct action on the stomach and is not a digestent. But a teaspoonful of the powder or a couple of five grain tablets taken in a little water with the food will neutralize the excess acidity which may be present and prevent its further formation. This removes the whole cause of the trouble and the meal digests naturally and healthfully without need of pepsin pills or artificial digestents.

Get a few ounces of Bisurated Magnesia from any reliable druggist. Ask for either powder or tablets. It never comes as a liquid, milk or citrate, and in the bisurated form is not a laxative. Try this plan and eat what you want at your next meal and see if this isn't the best advice you ever had on "what to eat." (Advt.)

TWO BOATS TO PLY ON ANACORTES ROUTE

Mount Vernon Will Be Added to Ferry Run in Early July—Travel Grows Fast

The double service of the Victoria-Anacortes Ferry Company will begin about July 10, with the addition of the ferry Mount Vernon to the route, augmenting the facilities already offered by the City of Angeles. Travel is becoming so heavy that the second vessel is to be commissioned as soon as she is ready.

The Mount Vernon was formerly the Robert Bridges, built by the Seattle Port Commission for use in the harbor ferry business. She was sold some time ago to the Anacortes company, and for the past few weeks has been undergoing structural alterations at Seattle to prepare her for service to Sidney. When she comes on the run she will have accommodation for thirty automobiles and 400 passengers. She is also being fitted with a new 200-horsepower semi-Diesel engine. The change of name honors the town of Mount Vernon, near Anacortes.

DESTROYER PATRICIAN VISITING AT ALBERNI

West Coast Folk Welcome Opportunity to Inspect War Vessel—Stops Until Sunday

PORT ALBERNI, June 22. — The Canadian destroyer Patrician, with Lieut. J. E. W. Oland in command, is at Port Alberni from Esquimalt. She will remain in port until Sunday morning. Through the courtesy of the commander the vessel was open to visitors this afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock, and many hundreds of town residents took advantage of the opportunity to inspect the speedy war craft. The officers have been made temporary members of the local tennis club during the stay of the ship here.

After leaving Port Alberni, the Patrician will steam to sea to meet the British cruiser Curlew, which is coming up the coast at the present time. After meeting on the coast, the two vessels will go in company to Prince Rupert, where they will stay some days. Subsequently they will head south for a fortnight's visit to Esquimalt.
